CAR STRIKE HITS DAYTON

Employees of Six Traction Companies Walk Out

JITNEY BUSES OPERATE

Car Men Claim Company Violated Agreement; Ohio News

DAYTON, O.—(By Associated Press)—Dayton today was held in the grip of its third street car strike in four years. Employees of all six city traction companies, with the exception of the city division of the Cincinnati and Dayton Interurban line, voted unanimously at 3 o'clock this morning to strike, effective at once.

Automobiles and trucks did a heavy business in the early morning hours as the five hundred employees remained idle. No attempt has yet been made by the companies to operate cars by strikebreakers.

The city commission today is expected to pass an emergency ordinance authorizing jitneys. Repeal of the seven cent fare ordinance, which was granted the companies when wages were increased to 10 cents last year is also a possibility.

Employees, justifying their strike action, claim that the companies have violated their agreement by announcing a new maximum wage of 45 cents an hour without arbitration. They claim an attempt is being made to break the power of the union and start an open shop policy.

CUBANS WOULD FREE US FROM VOLSTEAD

WASHINGTON—(By United Press)—The Cubans are a grateful race. We freed them from Spain now they are going to free us from Volstead, according to a dispatch from Havana, to the department of commerce today.

A new drink, neither beer nor whiskey, nor any doozy junk, but a drop of which will make you frisky and a spoonful make you drunk, has been discovered by the new sugar college of Cuba, the dispatch declares.

Scientists of the college, which is government endowed, declare that the drink contains not a drop of alcohol nor any substance which would bar its importation into the United States under the Volstead act or anti-narcotic laws. It is made from sugar, but the entirely new and wildly intoxicating liquor is dependent upon a secret chemical transformation.

TURK NATIONALS THREATEN

Reports Declare They Have Penetrated Neutral Zone

BRITISH TO RESIST ATTACK

Constantinople Said To Be In Danger; Causes Anxiety

LONDON—(By Associated Press).—Great Britain, France and Italy may be compelled to adopt extensive and concerted measures against the Turkish Nationalists, it was declared by a number of London newspapers this morning. Reports that the Nationalists have actually penetrated the neutral zone east of Constantinople and along the sea of Marmara have not been confirmed, but there is reason to fear that they are concentrating forces to attack Constantinople.

The situation has given rise to serious anxiety, and the allied high commissioners at Constantinople have been conferring with General Harrington, commander of allied forces there, regarding steps to be taken in the event of a probable advance by the Nationalists.

MUST RESIST ADVANCE. General Harrington will have no alternative but to resist the Turkish advance to the utmost for the purpose of securing respect for the neutral zone, which was established by the entente, and insuring free navigation of the straits in accordance with the terms of the treaty of Sevres. Should hostile action be necessary, British naval forces may be employed in opposing the Turks, the London Times stated today.

Connected with the situation arising from the concentration of Nationalist troops around Imdid and farther north in Asia Minor, is a supposed Bulgarian intrigue to recover Western Thrace, which Bulgaria lost, as a consequence of the war. It is asserted Italy, Rumania, Jugo Slavia and Czechoslovakia have already signed a convention which would check the Bulgarian plans. Rumania, Jugo Slavia and Czechoslovakia form what is known as the "Little Entente," and by virtue of the treaty of Rapallo and subsequent understandings, Italy is believed to have become sponsor for the "Little Entente."

Rumania is believed, said the Daily Mail today, to have offered fifteen thousand troops to aid the allied forces in Constantinople, which are estimated at ten thousand British, including a number of Indian organizations, and five thousand French.

ELEET EN ROUTE. MALTA—Virtually the entire British Mediterranean fleet, with all the attendant ships, including the aircraft vessel Pegasus, is en route for or concentrated within easy reach of Constantinople, where the situation is viewed with some anxiety. It is said that British military reinforcements also are going out from England.

Never before has the harbor of Malta been so empty. Even the reserve ships here are destined for the east, and the vessels which recently sailed in that direction have carried large supplies of munitions.

ICE SUPPLY SHORT. FINDLAY—Findlay was suffering from an ice shortage when the mercury soared to 98 degrees. There have been no deliveries of ice for three days.

CINCINNATI SOARS. CINCINNATI—The high mark of the year was reached when the government thermometer registered 98, the highest since 1913.

FULTON DIES. NEWARK—Thomas B. Fulton, died here after being an invalid for two years.

COMMITTEE SUICIDE. COLUMBUS—Charles G. Selbert, 48, committed suicide in a hotel here by shooting himself. His health is given as the cause.

LEAVES OVER MILLION. LOUISVILLE—The will of Marion E. Taylor, former Kentucky distiller, filed in probate court, disposes of an estate valued at $1,523,000.

WALCOTT RESIGNS. WASHINGTON—Senator Josiah O. Walcott, Democrat, Delaware, resigned from the senate to accept the chancellorship of his state. His term would have expired in 1923.

KILLS DAUGHTERS. SPOKANE, Wash.—Dependent over failing health, Mrs. Irene Weber, shot and killed her two old daughters and the infant child, and then shot herself.

MOTORCYCLE PLUNGES INTO DITCH—ONE IS KILLED. TOLEDO, O.—James Moore, 42, died in a hospital here this morning as the result of a motorcycle accident late yesterday. Moore and four other men were riding a motor cycle and side car when the motor cycle plunged into a six foot ditch. Moore's skull was fractured. F. W. Shiebert, one of the party was badly bruised at the head and shoulders but not seriously injured. The others escaped unhurt.

WILL TEST PEACE RESOLUTION

Validity of Measure to be Challenged in Supreme Court

CONGRESSMAN FLOOD SAYS

Question Arises Out of Seizure of German Property

WASHINGTON—(By United Press)—Validity of the peace resolution will be challenged in loyal battles which probably will be carried to the United States supreme court. Representative Flood, Virginia, ranking Democrat on the house foreign affairs committee, predicted today. He declared that it will never be determined definitely whether congress can declare peace with Germany and Austria-Hungary until the high court passes on the question.

The suits to test the resolution probably will be brought by Germans, whose property was seized by the alien property custodian during the war, or may arise thru other suits which would hinge on the date of official peace, Flood said.

WANTING PROSPERITY. The Germans, it is known, are planning a big legal drive against the federal government to regain their property. The peace resolution recently signed by the president confirms all the seizures, penalties and fines affecting these interests.

Hundreds of lawyers in New York have been retained by the Germans to fight for the property and the first suits probably will be set aside the sales to American citizens which were made by the alien property custodian under the authority of an act of congress.

These sales involved many of the valuable dye patents which are now in the hands of Americans. According to constitutional lawyers in congress the supreme court never passed directly on whether peace can be effected by congressional action.

Some direct instances are being referred to as evidencing the belief that congress has no such power. OFFICIALS PROTEST. Despite the possibility of a court attack on the peace resolution, officials were going ahead with other details of peacemaking with other President Harding and Secretary Hughes conferred yesterday.

One of the first things to be determined is whether it will be necessary for President Harding to issue a proclamation of peace, Secretary of State Hughes has been studying this and Attorney General Daugherty may be asked to help decide it.

Whether the treaty with Germany that is to follow the peace resolution will be a "deleted edition of the Versailles treaty or a new treaty of amity," has not yet been determined. It is stated authoritatively, however, that whatever the form of the pact, it will protect all rights and interests accruing to America under the Versailles pact and the armistice and insure America equal economic opportunity in world affairs.

DAVIS' WIFE ILL. Governor Called to Home in Cleveland Today

COLUMBUS, O.—(By Associated Press).—Governor Davis will make a hurried trip to his home in Cleveland this afternoon to be with his wife, who is reported seriously ill, although not critically ill. Relatives telephoned the governor this morning asking him to go to Cleveland at once. The nature of Mrs. Davis' illness was not announced.

Governor Davis announced that he would leave immediately following a taxation conference with members of the legislature at 11 o'clock, and a cabinet meeting scheduled for early afternoon.

OHIO ELKS LEAVE FOR ANNUAL CONVENTION

COLUMBUS—Ohio Elks today joined in a nation-wide movement toward Los Angeles for the annual B. P. O. E. convention.

Two special cars left here today carrying members of the lodge from Central Ohio. A similar delegation left Cleveland and other northern Ohio cities.

The selection of a site for the new Elks Memorial building will be made at the convention. The Ohio delegates will join in campaign to have Columbus selected Grand lodge officers already have inspected the proposed site here.

TARIFF FIGHT ON IN HOUSE

Bill Officially Submitted By Fordney, for Consideration

EXPECT MINORITY REPORT

Characterized As "Magna Charter" of Standard of Living

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press).—Praised and denounced by Republicans, the administration tariff bill came formally today before the house of representatives.

Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee, in a report which he said he understood all Republican members expect Representative Frear, of Wisconsin, would sign, characterized the effort of the committee as a "magna charter for the perpetuation of American standards of living and the constitution of a uniform and universal prosperity."

Representative Frear had previously made public his minority report in which he denounced the bill as "containing provisions fundamentally indefensible" and as an abandonment of specific party pledges.

CRITICISMS LATER. The criticisms of the Democratic minority of the committee will be submitted later, probably tomorrow. Republican leaders will seek at a conference of all Republican members tonight to reach an agreement as to procedure and methods of handling the bill in the house.

When Chairman Fordney offered the report, Representative Garrett, of Tennessee, acting Democratic leader, objected to its presentation on calendar Wednesday under the house rules, but Speaker Gillett permitted the report to be filed. Formal consideration of the bill will begin tomorrow under present plans of Republican leaders.

The report as presented by Chairman Fordney said the committee members in drafting the bill were governed by a desire to encourage American industry without, at the same time, saddling upon the American consumer any unnecessary burden.

Discussing protection against anticipated inroads of German competition, the report said the Germans had been to them only the American markets into which they could go with methods "as ruthless and as destructive" as ever had been known in commerce.

HEAT KILLS BABIES. CHICAGO—Chicago babies died last week at the rate of fourteen a day, a 10 per cent greater infant mortality than a year ago. The increase is ascribed to the heat by the health department. Four deaths of adults here yesterday were attributed to the heat. The weather bureau offered no immediate relief.

FORMER CINCINNATIAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA. CINCINNATI, O.—W. C. Rogers, former Cincinnati business man and theatrical producer, died yesterday in Berkeley, Calif., of pneumonia, according to word received here today. He was born in Cincinnati November 14, 1848. While a member of the state legislature he introduced the "Rogers law," on which the fifty year franchise held by the Cincinnati Traction Company is based.

NO RELIEF FROM HEAT SEEN

Predicted Showers Will Not Drop Temperature

MORE DEATHS REPORTED

"Continued Warm" Remains Official Weather Forecast

COLUMBUS, O.—(By Associated Press).—No end to the heat wave is yet in sight for Ohio, according to announcement today by the United States weather bureau.

In fact, the weather in the eastern half of the United States was from two to six degrees warmer today than it was yesterday, although eastern and southern Ohio reported a drop of from two to four degrees this morning.

Will remain warm. Slightly cooler weather is being experienced in the plains states today, but more warm weather was reported in the Rocky Mountains. The weather bureau announced that the cooler weather in the plains states would have little, if any effect on the temperature in this part of the country.

The weather bureau reported the following maximum temperatures for this district yesterday.

Cincinnati 98, Columbus 94, Toledo 94, Indianapolis 96; Pittsburgh 94 and Cleveland 88. In most cases, readings of thermometers at street levels registered higher than 100 degrees. Columbus last night experienced the hottest night of the summer, the weather bureau reporting an official temperature of 81 at 7 p. m.

PREDICTS MORE HEAT. CLEVELAND.—(By United Press).—"Continued warm" was the local weather forecast for today. Weatherman Emory said there may be showers and a breeze might relieve the situation but doubted they would arrive in Cleveland for the next 24 hours.

Local thunder showers of short duration may come during the day, he said, but would not help matters. One death from heat was reported to police today. The mercury hovered around 90.

CROWD LAKES. AKRON.—(By United Press).—The largest crowds in the history of local parks are flocking to the dozen lake swimming beaches near the city seeking relief from the sweltering heat which continues unabated.

Temperature on the downtown streets ranged from 100 to 108 degrees Tuesday afternoon. Government instruments registered 98 degrees. A light breeze during today gave some relief. No prostrations were reported in Summit-co yesterday.

REACH 100 MARK. CINCINNATI.—One death and two prostrations have been recorded as a result of Cincinnati's most extended spell of hot weather since 1874. Temperature here hasn't dropped below 90 degrees in 20 days. It was over 100 degrees on the streets today.

HEAT KILLS BABIES. CHICAGO—Chicago babies died last week at the rate of fourteen a day, a 10 per cent greater infant mortality than a year ago. The increase is ascribed to the heat by the health department. Four deaths of adults here yesterday were attributed to the heat. The weather bureau offered no immediate relief.

FORMER CINCINNATIAN DIES IN CALIFORNIA. CINCINNATI, O.—W. C. ### GOVERNMENT TO "SUMMER" IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON—(By United Press).—The United States government has decided to remain in Washington this summer.

President Harding, it was learned today, has about given up hope of going to Alaska, a trip which he planned to make if congress adjourned.

A poll of the cabinet today showed that all of the members have made plans to stay here. Secretary Hughes already has taken a summer home here. Secretary Mellon may do so. Postmaster General Hays will make week-end trips to Indiana and Attorney General Daugherty to Ohio when they can. Secretary of Commerce Hoover won't try to get away. Secretary Fall may make an irrigation and reclamation trip thru the west. The senate today was on record against a recess. House leaders said they planned to work ahead on tariff and taxation.

The decision of the government to stay here caused a number of foreign diplomats to cancel options on summer homes and reservations at summer hotels. It is customary for a diplomat to stay close to the government to which he is accredited.

DEPUTIES, sworn in by Sheriff E. H. Dornmy halted the rioting shortly before daybreak.

W. T. Reid, strike breaker engineer, received five bullet wounds during the battle. He has a slight chance to recover, physicians said.

ARREST TWO. Two arrests were made early today. Warner Jordan and Sam W. Whittle, strikers, were arrested, charged with starting the riot.

Reid had just arrived on his engine at the road's shops here, when a volley was fired from a nearby cornfield.

The shots were returned by employees and special deputies who have been patrolling the company's property since a general strike was called several months ago.

Reid fell at the first volley. Firing continued until a member of the train crew, despite the flying bullets, boarded the locomotive and drove it out of the yards.

FEAR MORE TROUBLE. "The situation is well in hand," Sheriff Dornmy told the United Press, following the arrival of the troops. "Trouble, however, may start at any moment. Feeling among the residents is running high."

Whether martial law will be declared, will be determined later, Dornmy stated.

He requested Governor Hardwick to proclaim martial law, but it is believed the governor will wait reports from Colonel H. E. Russell, commander of the troops.

Martial law was proclaimed shortly after the troops arrived. Guards were placed at strategic points.

With the arrival of the troops regular train service which was suspended during riot was resumed on the A. B. & A.

HYLAN OPPOSED FOR MAYOR. Opposition in New York Organizes Against Tammany

NEW YORK.—(By Associated Press).—The municipal political pot is beginning to boil in hot weather. Plans are well under way for opposition to John F. Hylan, who has been mayor four years and is a candidate for re-election in November, with Tammany support again.

His opponents were jubilant today over the fact that the Business Men's League, which sponsored him four years ago, had failed to endorse him, and over mention of other prospective candidates in a closed session yesterday.

Republicans of the five boroughs have appointed a committee, with Henry W. Taft as chairman, to formulate an address to the public urging a solid front against Tammany by all opposing groups. A Socialist city convention will be held Saturday and Sunday to recommend candidates for the mayoralty and other offices.

Morris Hillquit, Socialist candidate four years ago, will not run again because of poor health.

200 FACE CHARGE. Great Number Arraigned As Moonshiners

SANDY HOOK, Ky.—(By United Press).—National guardsmen patrolled the streets today when nearly 200 persons were to be arraigned on charges of moonshining. About half the community—where the hill folk have distilled their own liquor since the days of Daniel Boone—apparently were in sympathy with the accused and the authorities anticipated trouble.

Resentment against the little understood and less appreciated prohibition law, for which "furniners"—all those living outside the mountain community—were responsible, was increased last night when Judge A. H. Frisco sentenced ten men to jail because they refused to pay $300 fines.

PACKARD ANNOUNCES DROP. DETROIT.—The Packard Motor company announced price reduction of from $20 to $1,700 on various models of automobiles. At the same time the Dodge Brothers announced its production schedule for the remainder of the year will be at its maximum capacity because of orders which have been received.

PITCHED BATTLE BREAKS OUT

Striking Railroad Men Cause Fight In Georgia

ONE FATALLY INJURED

Authorities Fear Further Trouble But Withhold Martial Law

FITZGERALD, Ga.—(By United Press).—Rioting which broke out late last night when alleged strike sympathizers and employees of the Atlantic Railroad engaged in a pitched battle near the road's shops was quelled early today.

Three companies of infantry from Macon and Cordelle, arrived here at 8 a. m. and took over the work of preserving order.

Deputies, sworn in by Sheriff E. H. Dornmy halted the rioting shortly before daybreak.

W. T. Reid, strike breaker engineer, received five bullet wounds during the battle. He has a slight chance to recover, physicians said.

7 CENT CAR FARE TO CONTINUE

Council Votes Extension to O. E. Until February 1.

DUMP GROUND STARTS WAR

Paul Landis Succeeds A. W. Tarvin as Councilman

Extension of the temporary franchise allowing the Ohio Electric to charge 7 cents street car fare was the principal act of city council Tuesday night. Present contract expires August 1, and with consent of council the agreement was extended until February 1.

Action on the matter was unanimous, after council as a whole had returned to a committee room and conferred with J. H. McClure, vice president and manager of the traction system.

According to representations made by McClure, the earnings of the system are less than cost of operation the deficit amounting to $16,995. He asked extension of 7 cent fares and to allow the company to continue 12 minute service. Otherwise, he stated, 23 minute service would be maintained.

The extension to February 1 was granted, on condition that profits be expended on improvement of service. This is the second time council has granted an extension of the present fare.

PAUL LANDIS APPOINTED.
The resignation of Councilman A. W. Tarvin, which has been rumored for several months, was presented Tuesday. In a brief letter to council, Tarvin tendered his resignation, to take effect immediately. It was accepted and Attorney Paul Landis, 771 1/2 W. Wayne-st, appointed to fill the unexpired term. Councilman Earl Rohn, succeeds Tarvin as chairman of the finance committee and Landis will replace Rohn on the bridge and sidewalk committee.

Mayor Burkhardt's recommendation that the salary of the safety director be raised from $600 to $1,500 annually was not acted upon. It was urged that immediate action be taken, as important matters are being held up because the office is vacant. It was referred to the finance committee.

Solicitor H. E. Garling was instructed to represent the city at the hearing on rate increase asked by the Lima Telephone company before the public utilities commission, August 27.

Action on the gas franchise was deferred. It was brought up for third reading and tabled on suggestion of Councilman Jones.

DUMP GROUND ROW.
A heated debate ensued when the ordinance creating a dumping ground at the foot of Ottawa river came up. The dump was causing rats and mosquitoes to breed by the thousands, according to W. J. Dempster, president of council. Residents of the vicinity are said to be up in arms over the matter. Mayor Burkhardt vigorously defended the establishment of the dump, claiming it would fill up a bad hole and make it available for residences.

Council disagreed, however, and quite vigorously attacked the measure. Indications are that it will be changed, turning the dumping to dirt and ashes only, or will be beaten at later meetings.

North-st relief sewer ordinance was passed but an ordinance creating the office of clerk for the chief of police was held up on first reading.

J. J. Wyre, W. C. Brennenman, and John Mohr were appointed appraisers for the Lakewood, Wendell and Nixon-ave sewers.

James Heffner, clerk, was instructed to consult L. E. & W. R. R. officials with reference to delay in constructing the Metcalf-st viaduct. Alleged dangerous condition of the B. & O. and belt line crossing was also ordered investigated.

A report made by Service Director Elmer McClain, shows that Lima will expend $6,300,000 on public improvements, on about 50 projects. Some are complete, others in process of construction and others not started. The city's share will be $587,000. McClain said, assuming that no part of the Fuller & McClintock plans for intercepting sewers be commenced this year.

Show time notes to mature in five years were authorized to pay the city's proportion $30,742 on eight sewers, to be started this week.

STANICK TO STAND TRIAL.
Charles Stanick, residing in southeastern Lima, was arraigned in Justice Ernest M. Botkin's court Wednesday, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated. Stanick pleaded not guilty. Trial was set for Monday.

Interviews-- Ideas and Fancies

H. B. FRIEDMAN, Hotel Norval, and SIG. LESTER, Lima House: "It seems to us that the statement made in a Sunday paper, referring to traveling men as 'sprawling guests' and giving them as the reason why chairs should not be placed in front of a hotel, is absurd. We have always had chairs in front of our hotels, both here and elsewhere, for the convenience of our patrons and will continue to do so during the summer months especially. The only hotels which do not provide chairs either in the entrance or in front of the hotel are those which do not have the room to provide this convenience. There is no such thing as a 'sprawling guest' in a modern hotel. We find traveling men are gentlemen."

MIKE CONNORS, laborer on Central-ave sewer: "The ones who really notice this hot weather are those who have to work out in it under the direct rays of the sun. A man gets warm from working and also from the heat of the sun. There is no quitting and hunting a shady spot or having an electric fan blowing air on you the time of day. Of course when the wind blows it makes the heat much more bearable, but when there is no air the heat is terrific. Still one gets used to working under these conditions and I don't mind it as much as working outside in the winter time."

JOHN KEVILLE, Deisel Grocery: "I find that sandals are about the most comfortable thing I can wear around the store while I am working. They turned my feet for a day or two while I was breaking them in, but since then they have felt all right. When one is on his feet all day his feet must be given a chance to spread out. If this isn't done, he will have corns and other foot troubles. Mine—the sandals—are a little too large, but they give plenty of room and that's what I want."

TO SENTENCE MEN THURSDAY

Donovan and Willis Soon to Know Court's Order

Sentence will be passed Thursday upon Joe Willis and George Donovan, members of the gang arrested here on May 21 after a running gun battle with police.

Request of the men, thru their counsel, was made that the sentence be deferred until Thursday. Both were denied a new trial by Judge F. C. Becker Tuesday. Judge Becker ignored the argument that probable new evidence had been found in suspects examined by police last week. He declared that identification was complete, that both had been given a fair trial and that the court had no disposition to usurp the powers of the jury, which had found them guilty.

Appeal to higher court will be made and each sentence is passed, legal counsel announced. In that instance both Donovan and Willis will likely be held here in the county jail until such a time as the higher court passes on their case.

Donovan and Willis were convicted of highway robbery of the farm home of Samuel and Jacob Fett on May 12, when $2,000 in Liberty bonds and a sum of money was stolen.

KABER JURY IS COMPLETED

Defense Succeeds in Keeping Women From Hearing Case

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press) — A jury to try Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber on a charge of murdering her husband, Daniel P. Kaber, was obtained a few minutes after twelve o'clock today. There are no women on the panel.

The jury was immediately sworn in and will be taken to Lakewood this afternoon to view the home in which Mr. Kaber was stabbed to death, after which counsel will make statements of the case to the jury.

The personnel of the jury that is to try Mrs. Kaber follows: PERSONNEL ANNOUNCED
Edwin L. Ford, clerk; Frank W. Evans, electrician; William Warner, timekeeper; Walter Bisler, salesman; Joseph Halpin, steamfitter; Thomas Burke, railroad brakeman; Mark Chapell, laborer; W. V. Beall, electrical worker; John C. Murtha, machinist; Thomas J. Burns, lumberman; James M. Van Tassel, lumberman; Louis M. Faber, retired grain dealer.

Judge Beinnon gave the jury detailed instructions how they must conduct themselves during the trial. They must not read newspapers or discuss the case with anyone. The jury will be kept together continuously during the trial under guard of deputy sheriffs. They will be looked up at night in a local hotel.

Both counsel for the defense and state expressed themselves as well satisfied with the jury.

Attorney Francis W. Foulson, personal counsel for Mrs. Kaber said: "The jury is composed of high class and fair-minded men. The defense is perfectly willing to entrust its cause in their hands."

The defense had only two peremptory challenges left when the jury was finally accepted. The state had one remaining.

A total of 107 veniremen were examined.

TRIO OF WIVES IN COURT SUITS

Seek Divorce From Alleged Recalcitrant Husbands

CHARGE FAILURE TO PROVIDE

Heated Period Brings Petitions Bunches

Action for divorces, which always follows a very hot or cold season, came thick and fast within the past twenty-four hours.

Ada L. Marsh, Delphos, in a suit against her husband, John L. Marsh, says she has been grossly neglected all her married life, extending over a period since May, 1938. During the time her husband was in Detroit, Mrs. Marsh says he sent her little money to care for herself and their child, now dead. She was compelled, she asserts, to support herself and baby. Marsh spent much of his money, according to his wife, in going about with other women. She was Ada L. Meekins before her marriage in Monroe, Mich.

Mrs. Alta Stringfellow, in an action against her husband, J. W. Stringfellow, charges failure to provide and desertion, saying she has supported herself since marriage on March 14, 1918 in Lima. She asks restoration of her former name of Lambert.

PREVIOUS ACTION DISMISSED.
Mrs. Stringfellow filed an action for divorce on December 1, 1919, but Judge Klingler refused a decree because Stringfellow had not been absent the required length of time to cause grounds for desertion. In that action she charged that her husband left her 24 days after their marriage. His whereabouts are said to be unknown.

Mrs. Blanche Catlett, in an action against Frank Catlett, 1238 Forest-ave, charges extreme cruelty and says she was forced to work in factories, while he would demand her money to spend in riotous living. She claims he threatened to do her bodily harm if she left him in paroxysms of jealousy he would order her from their home, she says.

With her earnings she clothed herself, paid grocery bills and contributed to payments on their home, in which she asks the court to protect her interests. The couple were married June 29, 1913, and have no children.

GOVERNOR ORDERS POLICE PROBE

Puts Toledo Auto Club Charges Up To Mayor Burkhardt

A communication from Governor Harry Davis, calling the attention of Mayor F. A. Burkhardt to allegations made against the local police department by the Toledo Automobile club was received at city hall, Wednesday.

Governor Davis' letter is brief and to the point. After the usual formal greeting common to all letters of an official nature, he requested the mayor to investigate the charges made. The Governor puts the matter up to Mayor Burkhardt and will make no probe of the matter thru his aides.

Mayor Burkhardt intimated that he had not made up his mind in the matter and will leave the final disposition of the matter to the new safety head, when he is appointed.

He also refused to state whether he will ask the mayor to bring Chief Roush to trial on the Toledo club's charges. As to Goebel and Eberle, the charges may be cause of preventing their return to the force, the mayor stated. He would not commit himself as to whether the two officers will be re-instated if the charges are disproven.

ARMY AIR SERVICE DENIES RUMOR

Starts Investigation of False Reports of Terminals

WASHINGTON. — (By United Press) — The army air service today started an informal investigation of the broadcasting of stories to the effect that the air service is planning a great national military airway system with terminals in hundreds of cities. Letters to this effect have been sent from New York to cities of 10,000 or over, it has developed.

In each case the writer states, the particular city has been selected as a terminal. The army air service denies any connection with the persons sending the letters.

The army air service stated it has plans for a set of military airways covering the country, but the only steps taken so far is the establishment of an air way from Dayton, Ohio to Washington.

No other terminals have yet been selected.

$4,055 IS CLAIMED FROM BOOSE ESTATE

Action for $4,055, claimed to be due for services rendered the late Mrs. Elizabeth M. Boose, on her farm and in her home, was begun in common pleas court Wednesday by Palmer Kanawel. He says he was engaged in a verbal contract made with Mrs. Boose on January 1, 1915, and that he served her for six years, two months and 15 days until the time of her death.

Kanawel sets forth the services are reasonably worth $2 a day. He says she paid him, during her lifetime, $475. T. E. Hamilton is administrator of the estate. Kanawel says Hamilton refused to pay the claim when it was presented to him and that he was forced to start action to secure the amount due him.

HAVE YOU TRIED THE HOTEL ARGONNE LUNCHEON AT 60¢ PER PLATE?

J. ADAM BEDE SPEAKER AT MEETING OF LIONS

J. Adam Bede, former congressman from Minnesota, was the guest of the Lions club at their Wednesday luncheon meeting. Bede delivered an address at the Chautauqua Tuesday evening and changed his plans to speak to the Lions.

His wonderful humor made the cuts forget the excessive heat in their enjoyment of his remarks. L. E. Ludwig introduced Bede and outlined the program for the remainder of the week at the Chautauqua.

The annual meeting and installation of officers of the Lions club will be held next Wednesday evening in the Crystal room of the Hotel Argonne. Prominent Lions from out of the city will attend. As this will be the mid-summer ladies night also, dancing will follow the dinner.

CROOK INDICTED EIGHTY TIMES

Brolaskie Arrested in Connection With Stock Fraud

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — (By Associated Press) — Indictment of Harry Brolaskie in New York with Anthony Drexel, Jr., Elliot Norton and Louis R. Jennings, in connection with the affairs of the Standard Oil Industries, Inc., makes eighty times Brolaskie, politician, former gambler and self-styled "reformed confidence man" has been indicted, according to records of San Francisco courts. Brolaskie now is under prison sentence of United States courts here following his conviction as the master mind of an alleged huge whiskey selling conspiracy which was declared to have involved thousands of dollars. He is free on bail while appealing from the sentence.

Brolaskie said he had excelled as a gambler, race track bookmaker and confidence man for years. According to news dispatches from New York Brolaskie was named in the indictment as general manager of the film enterprise. He dealer of the film enterprise. He dealer of the film enterprise.

In 1917 he said, he had been indicted in connection with the same concern, arrested and taken to New York but the case later was dismissed when it came to trial.

16,000 DELEGATES AT C. E. MEET

Largest Religious Gathering in 20 Years Assembles

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — Most of the sixteen thousand delegates to the sixth world's Christian Endeavor convention had arrived today and were ready for the opening session tonight. The largest religious gathering assemblage in New York for twenty years will remain until next Monday night when the convention will come to an end.

The opening session tonight will be presided over by Dr. Francis E. Clark of Portland, Maine, founder and president of the Christian Endeavor Society, which has grown in forty years to a world-wide organization of four million members. Mayor Hyman will deliver the address of welcome for the city. Rev. Dr. Finis Idelman for the city's churches and Frederick A. Wallis for the convention committee. An address on "Christian Endeavor and Business" by Roger Rabson will feature the opening session.

GOVERNOR SEEKS NEW TAX LAW

Legislators Feel Proposal Could Not Pass House to People

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Governor Davis today asked members of the taxation committee of the legislature, at a conference at the governor's office, to make a determined effort to agree on a taxation proposal for submission to the voters at the next election, on the basis of the over a half a century's experience, submitted to the assembly without result earlier in the year.

The governor said he desired the legislature to hold a special session early enough to enact legislation submitting a new tax plan to the voters in November.

Legislative leaders said they feel that there is no hope of obtaining sufficient votes to pass any legislation on the subject of taxation at this time. It requires a two-thirds vote of the legislature to pass a law in the house and in view of the deadlock between uniform rulers and classificationists the leaders told the governor they deem it futile to call a special session at this time.

Following the meeting in the governor's office, the committee went into executive session in the senate chamber.

NO OBJECTIONS MADE TO ROAD IMPROVEMENT

Hearing of claims for damages on account of estimated assessments on the improvement of the Delphos-Spencerville rd was held before county commissioners Wednesday.

The Delphos-Spencerville rd is one of the main thoroughfares of the county and one of the most traveled. The improvement is on the part from Delphos to the north to Delphos. Commissioners will proceed with the work to which there is practically no objection.

WOMAN FOUND SANE
Mrs. Mary M. Harter, Spencerville, was found not insane at a hearing in probate court Tuesday and was dismissed. Warrant for her arrest was filed by her son.

DAN STAPLES IS FINED $1,000

Changes Pleas to Guilty as Whisky Runner

FAILED TO RECOVER LIQUOR

Cases Dismissed, Account Lack of Evidence

Altho he pleaded not guilty to a charge of whisky running when arraigned in police court last week, Dan Staples, W. Market-st, changed his plea when presented before Judge Emmett Jackson in police court Wednesday morning. He was fined $1,000.

Efforts on the part of Staples to recover 79 bottles of whisky taken from the home of David Wisner, Allen-co farmer, said to be the property of Staples, proved futile, Wednesday, according to authorities. The whisky is in the possession of the court and Judge Jackson refuses to turn it back. It will be destroyed, the judge declared.

EVIDENCE LACKING.
Owing to lack of evidence, the case against Earl W. Smith, proprietor of the Arcade cigar store, E. Market-st, was recommended to be dropped by City Solicitor Garling. The confession of Harry Healy, arrested some time ago for auto theft, is said to be responsible for the accusation against Smith, who was accused of violating the Crabbie act on Oct. 10, 1939. The city solicitor in his recommendation to Judge Jackson cited where Smith could not be convicted on the charge because the Crabbie act was not effective until November of that year.

The principal witness against Smith, according to police, was a farmer named Rex. However, in the opinion of Garling, Smith could hardly be convicted upon Rex's testimony as the latter admits Smith brought a sack of something to his house, but he has no assurance it was whisky.

At the time the witnesses in the Smith case were subpoenaed, there was much speculation as to whether the case would come to trial. Those interested, who knew the names of the witnesses called, believed the case would never come to trial because of the prominence of the man who had been called to testify. Authorities, however, deny this was their reason for dropping the case. They declare it was simply lack of evidence that closed the case.

ANOTHER RELEASED

Harley Arnold, arrested at the same time Staples was taken, was released. He, like Staples, pleaded not guilty to a charge of whisky running when arraigned in police court. Police said they really had nothing on Arnold and at the time of his arrest, the blotter at police headquarters showed he was being held as a suspect. Later, however, a charge of transporting whisky was placed against him. Believing that he could not secure a conviction, Chief of Police Roush recommended that the case be dropped. Judge Jackson and City Solicitor Garling complied with the recommendation.

NEW SAFER STILL IN ABEYANCE

Mayor Wants Salary Increased Before He Acts

The distinctly anxious to induce council to raise the pay of safety director's office from $600 to $1,500 annually, Mayor Burkhardt refused to state whether he would be being groomed to rap the plum of the town.

Just prior to the present administration's advent at the city hall, the outgoing council yielded the big breadbox on the payroll of appointments. Among the reductions made was safety head's pay from $1,800 to present pay. The ordinance was passed in October 1939, but incumbents drew pay at the old rate until the end of the year.

After forcing the resignation of Director Fred Fisher, because of a disagreement over conduct of the department, Mayor Burkhardt now seeks to more than double the salary. Otherwise he claims he cannot secure a permanent appointee. At council meeting Tuesday he demanded immediate action, but the matter was referred to the finance committee.

There is an under-current in council to the effect that no raise will be granted until members are satisfied with the appointee.

Wednesday the Mayor stated he could not make his selection until he could assure his man of the size of the monthly check.

He promised to discuss the matter with Solicitor H. E. Garling Wednesday to learn the legal angles.

OFFICE IS FILLED

Columbus Man Appointed Securities Commissioner

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — Arthur L. Stewart, of Columbus, today was appointed securities commissioner by William C. Phipps, state director of commerce. Stewart succeeds C. F. Schaber, Democrat.

Frederick P. Walther, of Cleveland, was reported to be slated for appointment to the Cleveland common pleas bench. He was to confer with Governor Davis today.

Another report was that he would be appointed secretary to the governor, succeeding Floyd E. Waite, new director of finance.

MEN AND MATTERS

Frank B. Cook returned to Washington, D. C., Wednesday, after visiting a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cook of W. Market-st.

A. C. Calacab is home from New York City, where he attended the annual convention of the American Optometry association and visited various other points of interest in the east.

Alfred P. Reck, secretary to Congressman John L. Cable, was in Lima Wednesday, as cool as a cucumber. Reck says the mercury soars to 110 degrees in Washington.

NATURALIZATION DAY IS SET FOR THURSDAY

Naturalization day will be held in common pleas court Thursday. Ira F. Clem, county clerk of courts, received word Wednesday from the inspector, saying he would be present to conduct the hearing.

At that time the following persons will be examined for papers in naturalization: Frank Kromer, 114 Second-st; Mattio Caprarillo, 1319 Greenlawn-ave; Salvatore Cirra, 701 N. Metcalf-st; Luigi and Antonio Cirra, 430 Marion-ave; Aysatino Cirra, 821 N. Metcalf-st; Joseph Patrick Brennan, 701 N. Jackson-st and Antonio Olivieri, 407 W. Fourth-st.

COMMISSION RACE DRAWS SCHULER

Member of Council Files Declaration of Candidacy

Councilman George W. Schuler, is the first member of the present administration to make a bid for reelection to the city commission. Announcement of his candidacy was filed at the office of the election board shortly before noon Wednesday. Schuler is No. 3 to enter the race.

Schuler is serving his first term in council and resides at 520 Holmes-ave. He is a carpenter and is employed at the Lima Locomotive works. His intention to make the race has been rumored in political circles for some time past.

Councilmen Earl Rohn and Ellis Jones are also mentioned as candidates and conditions are being circulated in their behalf.

Dr. George Hall, 866 Bellefontaine-ave, was endorsed by the East Side Welfare Tuesday to make the race from that section, at a meeting held in Lincoln Park fire house.

He has resided in Lima for 50 years, and was at one time president of council and was postmaster during the administrations of Harrison and McKinley. Petitions are circulated at the meeting to secure signers for Dr. Hall.

OHIO DRY FORCE IS INCREASED

Five New Inspectors Appointed by Prohibition Commissioner

COLUMBUS — (By United Press) — Don V. Parker, state prohibition commissioner today announced the appointment of five additional inspectors to aid his overworked force of 20 agents now working in Ohio. The appointments brings the force to the limit provided under the "drier bill," creating the department.

"There is enough work for twice as many inspectors as we are permitted to have," Parker said today, "and all of them would be kept busy. Half the present force has been kept busy in Cleveland and Cincinnati alone for the last week, and more could have been used, had they been available."

"We are kept busy with those who make liquor to sell, without attempting to molest those who make been in their cellars for their own use. We know an enormous number of people are doing that, but that would be very difficult to stop."

Parker contended his men are getting bootleggers faster than new ones start.

2 EX-CONVICTS ATTEMPT TO PROVE HONOR THEORY BY RECOVERING JEWELRY

NEW YORK — Two ex-convicts have undertaken to establish their theory that there is honor among thieves by attempting the recovery of thirty-five thousand dollars worth of jewelry stolen from the state room of Colonel William H. Donaldson, publisher of the BitBoard, a theatrical magazine, on a New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad train on the night of June 23.

"Trusty the Trusty," a reformed confidence man with a wide acquaintance among criminals, today made public a statement calling on the criminal or criminals to return the jewels and promising them that they need be in no fear of arrest. He pointed out that Colonel Donaldson has often assisted in the rehabilitation of ex-convicts. The other ex-convict is Pat Crowe, a former kidnaper, who will work in the Boston underworld.

MISS RIDDLE MAY BE EMPLOYED AS SALES INSTRUCTOR IN SCHOOLS

The employment of Miss Elizabeth Riddle, Cincinnati, as instructor in the retail sales courses in the Lima high schools was recommended by directors of the Lima Merchants' association, Wednesday. The board of education will be asked to employ Miss Riddle, one of four teachers in Ohio who are now available. Six cities are competing for their services.

Miss Riddle was in Lima a week ago and consulted with the educational committee and Prof. J. E. Collins. The committee reported that she was satisfactory, in their opinion. The committee is composed of the following merchants:

George Carter, Henry Deisel, Jr., Roy Gregg, Virgil Knisley, M. Mitchell, Gus Holstein and J. Wohl-gemuth.

Reports were received from committees on publicity, entertainment, finance, welfare, trade extension, membership and grievances.

Some of the future policies of the association were discussed.

ANTI-PROHIBITIONISTS TO ORGANIZE BOYCOTT

NEW YORK — Organizers of the Independent Day anti-prohibition parade on Fifth-ave announced today that members would be furnished with names of commercial houses that favor prohibition and would be asked not to deal with such houses. The organization intends going into politics also. It announces that it will support "wet" candidates for national, state and local offices.

WE ARE HELPLESS, BEDE SAYS

Former Congressman From Minnesota Speaker Here

DEPENDENT ON EACH OTHER

Chautauqua Lecturer Tells What's Wrong With World

"Co-ordination and co-operation are the two most needed things in America and in the world," said J. Adam Bede, former congressman from Minnesota, at the Lima Chautauqua Tuesday evening. "Prosperity will come whenever producers are all on the same level and are receiving an honest day's pay for an honest day's work."

"Conditions today are a repetition of conditions after the civil war and also in 1932," continued Bede. "We have lost during the war 300 billions of property and 50 millions of men. These cannot be regained in a few months or a year. It will take years and the best efforts of everyone concerned to get the world on its feet again."

"When my father came to Ohio he built his own house, made his own shoes, raised his own food and depended on no one else but himself," added Bede. "Today we are dependent on each other. As a result, if our shoe man keeps his prices up or the contractor profiteers we are not able to buy our shoes or build our house unless we can also profiteer a little. Today the farmers have seen the prices of the things they produce drop to below the cost of production. Other industries have been hit the same way. As soon as the rest come down to the level of those already liquidated we will be ready for prosperity."

CHAUTAUQUA PROGRAM
In the musical prelude Miss Myrtle Thornburgh sang a number of American compositions, preceding each one with a few explanatory remarks. Her offerings were very well received.

UNEMPLOYED ASK FOR RELIEF

Twenty Five Thousand Parade in Protest at Bridgeport

BRIDGEPORT, Conn. — (By United Press) — An army of 25,000 unemployed mobilized here today for a demonstration in the streets of this bustling factory city.

Veterans of the World War joined hands with ragged "foreigners," to impress on the onlookers the need of thousands of penniless men out of work. Women carrying babies joined with their husbands in the demonstration thru which they hoped to obtain relief from poverty.

"MUST STOP HERE" — "It must stop here — it cannot go on," Minor Treat, head of the Central Labor Union and commander of the Veterans of the World War, told the United Press. "One thousand men out of work in this town, as in every other factory town, are in need of immediate assistance. The world makes no move to assist them in getting work and saving them from starvation. This is our only way of protest."

After the demonstration Treat said a formal protest would be sent to state and city officials.

Patrick J. Flannagan, superintendent of police, declared he would make no effort to supervise the demonstrations. He said, however, he had arranged for full police protection for the parade.

An official of the Manufacturers' Association declared the organization had completed arrangements for disbursing $300,000 to unemployed.

He said the association would take no recognition of the demonstration.

ROTARIANS VISIT YANK'S GRAVES

Delegates to International Convention Entertained by Duke

PARIS — (By Associated Press) — More than five hundred of the visiting Rotary club delegates and their wives went to the grave of the unknown soldier in the Place D'Etoile this afternoon and stood by silently while Dr. Crawford Y. McCullough, of Port William, Ont., president of the International Rotarian organization, laid a wreath on the tomb.

Dr. McCullough made a brief address in which he expressed the gratitude of the Rotarians for the service to humanity of which the unknown soldier was symbolic. The women members of the party then formed into line and scattered flowers on the grave as they passed.

After this function had been concluded the Duke of Buchach of Vandome gave a garden party in honor of the Rotarians at which many prominent Frenchmen were present.

The chief event on the delegates' program was a dinner at the International club tonight given in their honor by the French government and the General Education of French Producers.

Only the International officers and their wives were invited to this function. The other delegates will attend the "heatre

Says Goitre Completely Removed

Is Report of Toledo Woman—External Treatment Used.

Note: It would be illegal to publish these statements if they were not true.

Mrs. Hazel Roewe, 633 Yondota St., Toledo, Ohio, says in her own home paper the Toledo Blade: "I had a goitre for 10 years. It enlarged my neck 1 1/2 inches. I could hardly sleep, it choked and smothering me, making it difficult to get my breath. I had dizzy spells and was very nervous. After using two bottles of Sorbol Quadruple my goitre has been completely removed. I am willing to tell or write anyone my experience."

Sorbol Quadruple comes in small bottles containing enough for most cases. It will not stain or irritate. Does not interfere with daily work. Leaves the parts in healthful, normal condition. Requires ten minutes daily.

WIDOW OF CHARLES CURTIS SUCCEUMS TO SIX WEEKS ILLNESS

Mrs. Eretta V. Curtis, 68, widow of the late Charles B. Curtis, 603 W. Spring-st., died at her home Monday at 5:40 p. m., after an illness of six weeks. Death was due to obstruction of the bowels.

Mrs. Curtis was born in Hardin-co on April 13, 1853. She had resided in Lima many years. Her husband died May 18, last. A daughter, Mrs. Harry Work, formerly of Chicago, but who has resided here for some months with her parents and given them care, survives.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence. The Rev. J. M. Mills will officiate. Interment will be at Woodlawn, beside the grave of her husband.

"OPEN HOUSE" TO BE HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

Walter D. Rowlands, general manager of the J. W. Rowlands furniture store, announces that Thursday evening of this week will be the opening of their new Victor department. A complete new Victor equipment has been installed making it the largest exclusive Victor department in the city. There are five sound-proof rooms located in the store where all the latest hits will be played. All visitors will be presented with Victor Dogs and flowers during the inauguration of the new department.

WILL NOT ABOLISH FARM BUREAUS

New State Director Of Agriculture Denies Rumors

COLUMBUS — L. T. Taber, the new state director of agriculture in Governor Davis' cabinet, announced today that no departmental work that has been found useful to the farmers of Ohio will be abolished under the reorganization plan.

He made this answer to an inquiry regarding the fate of several bureaus in the department of agriculture. Reports had been circulated that some of these bureaus were to be abolished or reduced. Director Taber said that reports that Governor Davis favored the abolishment of the bureau of markets were without foundation.

T. C. Gault chief of the bureau of dairy and foods today sent Director Taber a letter directing attention to the situation in his department. The work of inspecting canneries has been stopped in the midst of the canning season owing to a conflict between the reorganization law and the law of a year ago providing for inspection of canneries.

The reorganization bill abolishes this work, altho the legislature made an appropriation for it. The reorganization bill, however, failed to repeal the section of the old law providing for cannery inspection. Pending a reply to his letter, Chief Gault has suspended activities in his department.

LIEE INSURANCE $400,000

By WILLIAM ALMON WOLFE

him that John Bradford's death might make a vast difference in his life. There is something to be said, after all, for that much-maligned thing, the artistic temperament.

And then a clerk ushered in a girl, and Prudence stared at her, frankly, and without offense. At once she will ceased to exist for him. His fingers began to itch to paint her. He could have told you at once exactly in what respects she failed to fulfill the ideal. She was a small girl. Her eyes were too big. Her nose turned up just the least bit. But the dimples had been very well done.

She leaned forward and stared at him quite as frankly as he did at her, and her lips were parted, so that he saw her small, white teeth.

And then the judge came out. He smiled at the girl. One did. And she flashed a quick look at Prudence, and then an inquiring one at the judge, and he nodded ever so faintly, and the girl clasped her hands and came right over to Prudence with both of them outstretched.

"I'm so glad!" she said. "I know I'm going to like you!" Of course Prudence was bewildered. But he took her hands and shook them very heartily and said that he was glad, too. And the judge cleared his throat.

"Er—ahem!—er," he remarked lucidly. "You are Miss Prudence, I assume?" he said, and reassured, went on: "This young lady is your cousin, Miss Prudence Walton. I believe that my late client, Mr. John Bradford, did not acquaint either of you with any facts concerning the other."

Certainly Prudence had never heard of the girl. "You will receive a copy of the will," the judge was saying. "So I shall simply touch upon its main points. After certain bequests are paid, the entire residuary estate is left to you—one-half absolutely, and one-half in trust for Miss Walton. She, like you, was left an orphan at an early age. Mr. Bradford, as in your case, provided for her upbringing and education. The estate, I may say, may be estimated at $300,000."

"The figures were rather crushing to Prudence. He did understand that it was a great deal of money, a very great deal.

"You are not only Miss Walton's trustee, under the will," Judge Burton said. "You are her guardian as well. Your powers, under the deed of trust, are very wide. Her expenditures are to be guided and controlled by you. Should she desire to marry before her twenty-fifth birthday, you may either terminate the trust, in case you approve of her choice, or you may, in the event of your inability to do so, prove, pay over the share of the estate conditionally left to her to certain designated charities. Briefly, you are to stand to her, in all things, in loco parentis!"

"It's ridiculous!" Prudence burst out finally. "Was Uncle John losing his mind before he died? He thought I was crazy because I wanted to paint and wouldn't learn anything about business. And then he goes and makes a silly will like that!"

"I never had a client whose faculties were better," Judge Burton said stiffly. "It seemed to him that this solemn charge, laid upon you, by a dead hand, would awaken in you a sense of duty. He hoped that you would be prepared to lay aside your interest in what seemed to him trivial things and—"

"They're not trivial things!"

The girl, Prudence, her eyes flashing, interrupted defiantly. "My cousin is going to be one of the most distinguished painters America has ever produced! I've asked all sorts of people about him since I heard of him. And if he doesn't want to waste his time being guardian for a silly girl like me, I don't see why he shouldn't say so!"

"But I haven't said so," said Prudence feebly.

"No—and I hope you won't," she admitted engagingly. "I won't be any trouble, really. And I'm twenty now, so you won't have to be my guardian so very long, will you?"

"One moment!" said Judge Burton. "If Mr. Prudence is unwilling to act as trustee, he is under no compulsion to assume the burden."

Prudence didn't like the lawyer's tone or his words or anything about him. Burden, indeed! That was a fine thing to call a girl like that!

"In fact, Mr. Prudence," Judge Burton said, "a trust company would most admirably care for Miss Walton's interests."

The girl pouted, rather bewilderingly.

"A trust company!" she said, with infinite scorn. "Would a trust company know whether I needed a new hat? And—"

"You say the will doesn't compel me to accept this trust?" interrupted Prudence. "That it's really left to me to decide?"

"Exactly," said Judge Burton. "The trust provision takes practically the form of a request."

"Well, that settles it, of course," said Prudence wretchedly. He turned to the girl, ignoring the lawyer altogether. "You understand that, don't you? You see that I can't help it?"

"Of course," she said with shining eyes. "Oh, I knew you were going to feel so! And I'm ever so glad!"

"I'll have to play the game, you know," he said. "I mean—I'll have to be a real guardian and interfere in all sorts of things that you'll think aren't any of my business. But you'll understand that I can't help that, won't you?"

Their eyes met, and perhaps she realized, in that moment, that this young man might not prove easy to handle.

"I think I'll go now," she said suddenly. "Mrs. Dayne must be tired of waiting for me. Will you dine with us tonight—Myles? We're at the Alcazar until we get settled."

Then she was gone.

There were many things for Prudence to think about. Prudence, to John Bradford had seen to it that, when her parents died, she was placed in the home of a family that, while it was excellent, was somewhat impoverished. She had gone to the different sorts of schools that turn out the modern young woman. But she hadn't believed in colleges for girls, and so her education had stopped with a finishing school—an old-fashioned sort that did not believe in the super-sophistication that is called finish in some places.

The realization that she was an heiress had come to Prudence as a stunning surprise, and yet as one to which it was very easy to adjust herself. Mrs. Dayne was a gift of fortune. She, like Prudence herself, was a surprise to Prudence.

Prudence met her guardedly when he turned up for dinner. Mrs. Dayne's age was her own affair; it might have been anything on the shady side of forty. Her taste in dress was faultless.

"I haven't any designs on Prudence," she said quite frankly. "She has more money than I, but I have quite enough. You're wonder-log who I am, so I'd better tell you, because I've really kidnapped your ward." She made a delightful face at him when she said that. "You needn't frown. I'm not a bit awed, really."

Prudence surrendered to her charm. "I'm not frowning," he laughed. "And of course I'm curious."

"I'm in the family, you see," she explained. "Only by proxy, tho. I married into it. But I've been a widow for fifteen years. Mr. Bradford used to come to me for advice about Prudence. He never took it—hardly ever, at least. I used to feel so sorry for her. Not that Mr. Bradford wasn't kind, but—well, she wasn't a mill. Or a church."

"But all this—" said Prudence. He looked around at the luxury of the sitting room, which spoke of the Alcazar at its best and most expensive.

"I went to her as soon as he died," said Mrs. Dayne. "I thought she'd need some one. And she had this letter from Judge Burton, asking her to come to New York and enclosing the address of a most respectable boarding house. Imagine that! So I brought her here with me. Judge Burton doesn't approve of me at all. He's my lawyer, too, you know."

"I see," said Prudence, with deep feeling. "Poor Prudence!" said Mrs. Dayne. "She's a dear. And I think I'll settle down for a year or two and take care of her. She ought to meet people, and I know the right ones. She's going to be tremendously popular, and lots of men will want to marry her. I can see that she doesn't make a mistake there. She'll have to live with some older woman, and I think she'll want to live in New York. So—"

"Splendid!" said Prudence, and meant it.

Thousands Are Nervous Wrecks
Cross, Crabbed and Care-worn
From Weak, Thin Watery Blood

without ever suspecting the real cause of their trouble—Iron-starvation.

A New York Physician says that MORE THAN ONE HALF THE POPULATION OF AMERICA PERISHES BEFORE MIDDLE AGE and that one of the chief contributory causes of this terrible waste of human life is the devastating weakness brought on by lack of iron in the blood.

THERE ARE 20,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES IN YOUR BLOOD AND EACH ONE MUST HAVE IRON.

An enormous number of people who ought to be strong, vigorous and in the prime of life are constantly complaining of weak nerves, headaches, pains across the back, disturbed digestion, shortness of breath, a general "run-down" condition, melancholy, and memory, etc., when the real cause of all their suffering is IRON STARVATION OF THE BLOOD.

The proof of this is shown by the fact of iron and is therefore an entirely different thing from organic iron. Organic iron is like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. It may be had from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron.

Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly condensed form that one dose of it is estimated to be approximately equivalent to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It's like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Over 1,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out, exhausted nerves. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results. Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. At all druggists in tablet form only.

FOURTH GROWING MORE SANE

COMPILED of figures shows that the United States has just passed the most sane 4th of July in many a year—from the standpoint of number of fatal accidents. The campaign that has been waged for some years, in behalf of a safe and sane 4th of July observance is bringing its good results, but there is still room for improvement.

The record shows that while fireworks and firearms took their toll for death on the latest occasion of the recurrence of the national holiday, by far the greater number of fatalities was due to drownings and automobile accidents. America accepts it as a settled fact that there will be an unusual number of deaths and accidents on the Fourth—and the expected always happens.

Toll of death taken daily by auto and rail accidents has served to render more callous the state of the public mind. In fact, so hardened have we become that it requires something near a catastrophe or a holocaust to excite more than passing interest. We see the results of carelessness, paying its dividend in death, or read about similar cases elsewhere and then go right along being careless until it happens again.

For the most part the admonition "safety first" is accepted as meaning something and intended for themselves as well as others. But quite too many never associate danger with themselves. Usually it is these who pay the penalty for their failure to heed the warning to "stop, look and listen" at a railroad crossing, where death lurks day and night. They are shocked by fatalities occurring all about them, everywhere—but they go right along being careless until it comes to them.

It is a hopeful sign of the times that there are less fatalities on each succeeding 4th of July. It is an indication that the people generally are coming to realize that caution is a word that means something; that safety is for those who seek it. Courting danger is foolhardy. In the end the victim of such foolishness usually pays.

HAYWOOD COMING BACK

SIMULTANEOUS with the announcement that the American Socialist organization voted down the radical element and decided decisively that the "dictatorship of the proletariat" has no part in the progress of American Socialism, the fact was heralded that "Big Bill" Haywood, who jumped bail and scurried off to Russia, is about to return to the land of his nativity and accept the brand of justice that will be meted out to him, deserved as a fomentor of trouble and as an arch plotter.

For the very reason that Haywood is deserting Russia, American Socialists voted down the radicals and decided they would have none of the Russian stuff. Bill is due to arrive here August 1st. He has very likely been fed up on the state of affairs in and about Moscow. Perhaps Haywood has had the experience of going hungry, the same as have thousands upon thousands in Russia. He probably realizes that freedom in Russia is worse than imprisonment in America.

Upon his return he faces a 20 year term in the federal prison, the result of a flagrant disregard of the laws of the nation that harbored him. It is quite likely that his journey to Leavenworth will start soon after he lands. As an I. W. W. and an agitator, Haywood went the limit. There is no good reason why he should not pay. He does not deserve favor from the government. He flaunted in the face of America his preference for Sovietism, but seeing it as it really exists, Haywood is glad to get away from it, even as many who were deported during and after the war, would be mighty glad now to have the opportunity to return.

His determination to come back is voluntary. Nobody wished it. He may have a sinister purpose in view, but America will be well able to take care of him if that is his plan. It is needless to recite here the reasons for the undesirability of men of the Haywood type. In Russia he came into his own and his own did not receive him. If he plans treachery, it is more than likely that Haywood will spend the remainder of his days in prison, where in any event he rightly belongs until such time as he affords good and sufficient evidence that he has become a regenerated citizen.

PERSHING'S ATTAINMENT

THERE'S a new Chief of Staff of the United States army. General John J. Pershing, commander of the American forces in Europe in the world war, has been chosen for that important post and has assumed his duties. It is now up to General Pershing to recruit the reserve strength of the army and put the American war machinery in the best official working order. There is no doubt but that he can and will do it.

It is generally accepted that war will continue a possibility, to a greater or less degree, since no decisive steps are being taken toward disarmament, hence the necessity for nations to keep themselves in readiness for warfare, to some extent at least, remains an undisputed fact. When the nations of the earth finally come to their senses, if ever, vast expenditures for maintenance of great armies and the purchase of implements of war, will be greatly reduced, if not altogether eliminated. When it is considered that the United States pays more for army and navy upkeep and for providing for the possibility of war, than it pays for anything else, the total amounts to an almost unbelievable figure.

But since we are still plodding along in the same old way, the military burden must continue to be borne. It is just as well that General Pershing, as any other, direct the work of maintenance of the military machine. He is a practical soldier, whose experience has been attained by hard work and hard knocks. He now has more authority than has ever before been exercised by any army officer in time of peace.

In the world war he was the associate and counselor of Marshal Foch and Sir Douglas Haig. He won fame for himself and success for the American cause. His selection as supreme commander of the United States army will meet the approval of the people of America, without a doubt, as well as of the military men of this country at home and abroad.

No one wishes for war to come to us again, unless it is that stripe of individual who wants war for the purpose of making gain from it, but war may come and since this is true, it is well to be prepared, not only with fighting men and equipment, but with a commander in whom soldiers and civilians have confidence.

ARSON RECORD FOR A YEAR

FIGURES loosed by the National Board of Fire Underwriters give rise to justification for the belief that we are a nation of incendiaries, broadly speaking. The record for 1920 appears to justify such a sentiment.

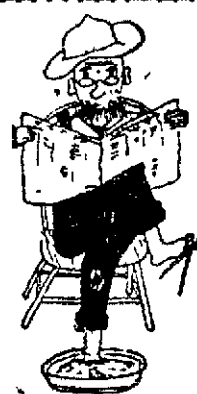

For many years past the nation's fire losses have been large, compared with those of other countries, but the record during 1920 is so uniquely enormous as to suggest wholesale arson.

According to the figures of the fire underwriters, the losses last year were $500,000,000, nearly $5 per capita and is 85 per cent more than during the preceding year. Also, it is 121 per cent more than the average for the preceding 10 years.

It is nearly 72 per cent more than the figures for any former year, save only 1906, the year of the San Francisco fire.

JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

THE GREATER PEACE

I have lived long enough to learn
The things which are of great concern.
And I would write them down today
For him who follows in my way;
I would impress upon his mind
The peace that comes of being kind
And I would teach him there's no fame
That can excel an honored name.

Unto the eyes of youth it seems
That most important are its dreams,
Yet high-flown dreams come tumbling down
And few attain the world's renown,
And even those who rise to power
Must live thru many a troubled hour;
The thing that counts thru peace and strife
Is, above all, a well-lived life.

Better by far than glory famed.

Is to meet all men unashamed;
Greater than fortune's glittering gold
Is love of friends when a man is old.
Who earns his neighbor's high esteem
Need never mourn some broken dream.
Who knows true friends are standing
Has peace which wealth cannot supply.

As Time, the great teacher of us all,
Shows us her glories, large and small,
Much that we once thought splendid, pales
And the great joy of conquest fails;
Richer than days of victorious glow
The kinder days of long ago,
He knows true glory, at the end
Who's played the man and played the friend.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is an unusually lucky day.
A member of the president's cabinet will retire before the end of the year, if the seers read the stars correctly.

Love affairs should prosper at this time.
Men, who occupy positions of authority in the government, will meet with much criticism in the near future, although not all of it will be deserved.

Women who are idealistic are less likely to be successful under this rule of the stars, than those who have more material ambition.

Persons whose birthday this is will have a year of such prosperity and steady progress; among the girls there will be many marriages.
Children born on this day will be conservative and intelligent and will meet with success without much effort.

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.
HOW OLD IS JOHNNY?
A mother makes this inquiry:
"At what age would you recommend telling boys the story of life? My son is just nine and I have already told him the story of how he came as a little baby to me, but it still runs in his mind that storks bring babies, and I want to tell him the truth instead of leaving him to pick up distorted information from older boys who would perhaps tell him in an undesirable way. Older women tell me it is nonsense to put such ideas in a boy's head, but he is going to learn some time, and I want him to understand in a way that will always make him think of motherhood as sacred and the power of human reproduction as a gift from God."
The older women have the wrong notion. It is their fallacious reasoning that maintains the myth of the stork, a myth employed in a cruel way of thoughtless or duty-shirking parents. If it isn't the duty of parents to teach their own children the truth about human reproduction, then all this grand talk about the "sacredness" of such things is insincere. The stork is an alibi that no good parent can longer afford to use.
According to careful investigations made by responsible Public Health Service authorities, the average age at which boys pick up their first sexual information—usually tainted information—outside of the home is nine years, whereas the average at which they receive instruction on the subject from or by direction of their parents is fifteen years. Far from being nonsense to tell children the truth, to teach them God's way, it is an injustice to tell them the stork myth or any other about such a sacred matter.
Don't wait until the children are nine, or twelve, or eighteen to teach them truth. Begin the moment they ask questions or show curiosity. That is the only good and fair way. That is the way that has proved best.
It is difficult. Of course it is difficult, especially for parents who have used the sorry alibi so long or for those who have discouraged children by hinting that such questions are in any way improper or indecous for parents to hear. But there are many good books that help parents, and others that may be given to boys or girls to read. I wish I had room to tell more about such books here. Write to the Public Health Service, Washington, D. C., and ask for a list of such books, and ask for free pamphlets on sex hygiene for boys, or girls, or young men or young women.

Farmer's Sickly Little Girl Was Quickly Improved by Nerv-Worth

Father Says Stomach Trouble Relieved—Gained Weight

"My little nine-year-old daughter had been troubled with stomach and bowel trouble for three years," said Miles J. Carter, Piqua, Ohio, and he continues: "We had tried a number of remedies without finding one that would help her, and we had given up hope of finding any relief for her, when we heard of Nerv-Worth. She has taken two bottles now, and is getting better and better since the first day she started to take Nerv-Worth. She has gained in weight and is more cheerful." The above statement is one of great weight to parents who have a child in a run-down condition, or suffering from ill health. Nerv-Worth is the ideal tonic for young or old. Its pleasant taste and beneficial effects make it exceptionally good for children. Remember Nerv-Worth is sold on a money-back basis, and if you are not satisfied with your first bottle, your druggist is authorized to refund your money.

Nerv-Worth is sold at $1.00 per bottle and recommended by Hunter's Drug Store, Lima; C. M. Young, Van Wert; Gasson's Drug Store, Lima; Drug Store, Kenton; Powell's Pharmacy, Bellefontaine; Minnell's, Defiance.—Adv.

"THE AFFAIRS OF ANTOL" NEW PLAY WALLACE REID AND GLORIA SWANSON APPEAR IN STAR ROLES

(By ESTHER WAGNER)

WALLACE REID and Gloria Swanson, who play the leading roles in Cecil B. DeMille's twelve-star special production, "The Affairs of Anatol," soon to be released, will be seen together in another all-star special to be made at the Lasky studio. This announcement was made at Hollywood by Jesse L. Lasky, who stated that work on the new production would be started as soon as Wallace Reid returns from New York, where he is now engaged with Elsie Ferguson in the production of "Peter Ibbetson," under the direction of George Fitzmaurice.

Elliott Dexter, who played the role of Max, Anatol's friend in "Anatol," and also has a big part in "Peter Ibbetson," will have a leading role in the new picture, the story of which is by Lorna Moon and which has been titled "Rainbow's End." Sam Wood, who is said to have been eminently successful in the production of Gloria Swanson's first starring picture, "The Great Moment," will direct.

"THE GILDED LILY" IS MAE'S BEST

YOU have to admit, after you see Mae Murray in "The Gilded Lily," that it's the best and most sincere work of her career, and that the picture is one of the most beautiful and sumptuous you have ever witnessed.

Will you look who's with the star, too! Lowell Sherman. His presence, poise and polish, without a doubt, has much to do with the successful toning down of the too, too much Miss Murray.

She, of course, is the lily of our story. A dancing girl with a naughty wiggle and a heart of gold who, quite unsuspected, hates the bright lights of Broadway and longs for an honest man's name and some socks to darn.

Consequently, when a dazzled young New Englander says the magic words: "Will you marry me?" there is no question as to what she will do. She says a fervent "Yes."

The boy goes home to tell mama. The lily doffs the gilt, buys some quiet serge and does her hair with sweet simplicity. The boy comes back, O, such a shock. Who is the prim maiden who flies coming to him? Who readeth to him out of "Hints for the Housewife" of an evening? A lily perhaps, but not the lily he had desired to pluck. Plenty of this stuff the boy had before he left home. He had won a popular dancing girl; not one he found himself engaged to, some one he, no doubt, but uninteresting. He tells The Lily that.

To please him, she goes back to the old life. Later she finds her happiness thru Mr. Sherman, whom it seems had always loved her. The lily has always thought of him as a rounder. But after her callow young New Englander had messed things up; after his mother had called and insulted her; after the gun play at midnight—why there is Creighton Howard to take her home to his own adorable and understanding mother who receives her as a daughter.

There you have the story of "The Gilded Lily." Certainly a picture to see, folks, and a good chance to get acquainted with the new Miss Murray. We never knew she could impress us, but she has this trip.

At the Faurot Opera House for the remainder of the week.

Richard Barthelmess starts filming "To the Devil."

"Renunciation," Hobart Bosworth's next, is a story of the Yukon.

Milton Sills and Tully Marshall support Florence Vidor in "Lucky Damage."

George Rizard, cameraman, wears a straw hat, winter and summer, while working.

Gladys Granger, who has an important part in "Cappy Ricks," was formerly an artists' model.

Buster Keaton is now a First National star, along with Norma and Connie Talmadge. Somewhat of a family affair.

Helene Chadwick says blondes should not use exotic perfumes and that lily-of-the-valley and violet are not for brunets.

Shirley Mason's next is "Love-time." She plays the part of a French peasant girl. Herbert Hayes is leading man.

When Viola Dana completes "The Match Maker" she is to star in a film tentatively called "Under the Sour Apple Tree."

Conway Tearle refuses to wear knit ties.

Hobart Bosworth played in the first movie ever made in Los Angeles.

Elsie Ferguson soon leaves for a vacation in England, France and Italy.

Extra! Mary Pickford lost a tooth while filming "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

"Vanity Fair," Chaplin's next, is a travesty on the weaknesses of the newly-rich.

Dolores Casanelli plays the part of Dolores, Spanish dancer, in "Peter Ibbetson."

Little Tahiti is coming in for much screen fame. Few of us know that it existed before "The Woman God Changed" was produced. Announcement now comes that William F. Adler is going to use the tiny republic as the scene for his next picture, "The Lagoon of Desire."

J. Stuart Blackton is trying out his new system for making colored films with an English company. The picture they are working on is called "The Glorious Adventure" and features Lady Diana Manners.

Henry B. Walthall and Mary Charleson, his wife, having toured in a stage play, are returning to pictures for a time. Later they plan again to become troupers.

Miriam Cooper

Would you rather be a star, regardless of story or direction, or would you rather forego the applause of individual stardom and play really big roles in big pictures produced by expert directors? Miriam Cooper, who played the leading feminine role in "The Oath," had that question to ponder over recently. Following her success in "The Oath," Miss Cooper had a number of starring opportunities but she chose to forego stardom herself to be "a principal in the cast" of "Serenade," R. A. Walsh's latest all-star production.

The filming of "Serenade" brought the entire Walsh family together for the first time in four years in the same picture. In "Serenade" Miriam Cooper has the leading feminine role and George Walsh plays opposite her. Raoul directs them both. In the intervening period both Miss Cooper and George have been starring in productions under the Fox banner, but they left so that they might appear in Director Walsh's big independent productions.

In addition to her firm conviction that individual stardom does not always spell success, Miriam Cooper is old-fashioned enough to believe there is no place like home. "Be it ever so humble, it's the greatest place in the world," adds the pretty heroine of dozens of screen romances.

GOSSIPY BITS
"The Girl of the Golden West," a great stage favorite a year ago, is to be produced in movies with Ethel Clayton in the name role.

Hugh Wiley, whose negro stories have become famous, is associated with Marshall Nellan.

Lillian Walker, screen star, who has been offered a monolog in vaudeville, has accepted a stock engagement during the summer. She intends to return to vaudeville in the fall in a sketch.

Buster Keaton has started on the first of six comedies to be made for First National.

MOVIE SECRETS ARE REVEALED

Q.—What movie actor is now reviving a series of comedies which were made several years ago by his very much famous brother?

A.—Did you know that Harold Lloyd has a younger brother, Gaylord Lloyd, who is now in the movies? Gaylord is now at work reviving the well known "Lonesome Luke" comedies made famous by his brother.

Q.—How old is Lou Tellegen, to whom he is married and of what nationality is he?

A.—Tellegen was born in Athens, Greece, in 1881 of Dutch parents. He began his stage career in France where he became famous as a leading man with Sarah Bernhardt. He is now a naturalized American citizen and movie star. Tellegen has played in nine photoplays, in several of which he appeared with his wife.

Q.—Who is the most divorced man in the movies?

A.—It's a close race, mates, with Tyrone Power and Willard Mack, tied for first place with three divorces each. Both, it is said, will soon re-marry. Conway Tearle and Hale Hamilton are not far behind as each has a record of having been three times married and twice divorced.

Q.—How many of our readers can tell us who Corinne Scott is?

A.—As we do not see any hands raised, guess we will have to tell you. It is the name by which folks down in Texas, Texas, used to know Corinne Griffith. Corinne is married now and is Mrs. Webster Campbell in private life.

THIS HUSBAND IS SELFISH

Seeks Enjoyment, Seeming to Forget His Wife at Home With Baby

Dear Miss Smart: I AM a married woman and have a little baby. My husband is very selfish and I don't think he cares for me. He goes to the movies every night, while I have to stay home and care for the baby. I keep the house clean, am a good cook and keep myself neat and I don't know what else I can do. What can you suggest?

YOU deserve great pity, but perhaps, thru tact and patience you can rectify your present unhappy and unfortunate situation. Your husband has given you sufficient cause to accuse him of selfishness and unfairness to you, but think what a wonderful thing it would be and how great would be your reward if only you could make your husband realize his mistake and bring about a happy situation in your home.

It is well that you are a good housekeeper and a capable cook, but this is not sufficient. You must be a good companion and help-meet to your husband, being concerned in all his interests. Of course, the baby should have proper care and most of your time and attention, but you should not give it and your home so much time that you have no spare moments left for your husband. In order that you may go out and enjoy some kind of an entertainment occasionally with your husband, certainly you can obtain some responsible person who will be willing, for a small sum, to care for your baby. (Invite a few friends to your home for a social evening of cards or some other diversion occasionally. Make every effort to make your home attractive and inviting to your husband. Reserve five or ten minutes each day for reading and keep yourself informed on the great subjects and problems of the day. Always be just as attractive in every way to your husband as you were when he first learned to care for you.

Dear Miss Smart: (1) Is a boy of 16 too young to go to a dramatic school? (2) Give me the names of dramatic schools and prices. (3) How long would I have to study to go with a company? (4) Do the schools place you in companies at the end of the term? (5) If I should go to a dramatic school, would I go in the winter or summer and would it be wise for me to go and quit my common school? (6) What are the addresses of the following: (a) Princeton, Pa., (b) Mary Pickford, (c) Lela Wilson, (d) Pearl White, (e) Geraldine Farrar, (f) Thelma Parr, (g) Alice Brady, (h) Norma Talmadge, (i) Zasu Pittman, (j) Viola Dana and (k) Shirley Mason?

(1) No, if he has sufficient talent and ability to undertake this art. (2) There is a dramatic school at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa.; one at the University of Syracuse, N. Y., and the Sergeant School of Dramatic Art is one of the institutions where one may take a course in dramatic training. Write them for information concerning the expense. (3) I could not say. Much would depend upon your aptitude in learning, your natural talent and character. (4) I think the best plan for you would be to remain loyal to the common school until you learn how to spell the simple words of the English language correctly and their proper use. Unless you have been told that you are exceedingly talented, I would advise you to forget all thoughts of the stage. One has to have unusual talent, comparatively good looks, fair education and some ability before one can make any success in the theatrical world. (5) (a) Universal City, Cal.; (b) United Artists, Los Angeles, Cal.; (c) Lasky Studio, 1520 Vine-st., Hollywood, Cal.; (d) William Fox, N. Y. C.; (e) Metropolitan Opera House, N. Y. C.; (f) Fox N. Y. C.; (g) Realart, N. Y. C.; (h) Lasky Studio, 1520 Vine-st., Hollywood, Cal.; (i) Metro, Hollywood, Cal.; (j) Metro, Hollywood, Cal.; and (k) Fox Studio, Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Miss Smart: A little over a year ago I became acquainted with a young man, who told me that he would be with me every two or three weeks with another couple. We always enjoyed ourselves, but he was full of life and tried to make others happy. The friend of my girl chum has a sister and this young man went with her occasionally, claiming her as only a friend of the family. A little over six months ago, this party left Ohio to work, writing to me occasionally. In the other hand, he did not write to this "sweet" the same home two months ago and had often promised to call on me or at least call by telephone, as he lives out of town. His efforts to reach me by phone were exhausted, he claims. One evening I met him and he asked why I was so indifferent toward him. Of course I had nothing against him and made no reply as to why I then inquired if it was his cause that he was coming with this girl. I told him no, but in the meantime it was told me that he intended to marry her. Then I felt it was time to explain to him that I thought it was perfectly alright that he didn't give me any more attention than he did, on that account. What puzzles me is, he made the remark that he had no intention of marrying this girl. Last night I was told he was just married. Now this is a long story, but would you tell me, just what should I do about a young man doing this sort of thing, then telling his friends he never gave it a thought to marry this girl. Do you think he is a selfish fellow? Why do you think he made me believe he wanted my company? Your thought on the matter will be greatly appreciated.

PUZZLED

This is somewhat of a mixed up affair, but perhaps we can straighten it out. The first thing for you to do is to find out definitely whether or not the young man married. If he has, you will simply have to accept the fact and make the best of it. If at any time you happen to meet him, simply congratulate him and do not permit him to know that you are hurt. If the young man is not married, certainly he has been rather negligent in giving you the little courtesies and showing his admiration and respect for you by paying you the slightest of friendly acts. If he really cares for you the least he could do would be to find some opportunity to see you in the past two months. Perhaps he simply wishes to hold you as an ordinary friend. In that case you cannot force his attentions. Do not be indifferent when you see the young man again. He was not engaged to you and it is his privilege to do as he chooses. Be friendly and courteous to him and let affairs adjust themselves.

LOOK WHERE PARIS SKIRTS ARE NOW

Paris is doing her best to reform us all. After she got us to raise our skirts knee high and got all of our own modest young things to wear the shortest of short skirts, in fact, some of the girls are just beginning to take tucks in their frocks, what does Paris do but, without any warning or apology, drop her skirts to barely escape the ankle. That is the whimsy of fashions and fads. They change in a minute without even a by-your-leave.

Pictured here is the newest importation from gay Paris. It is a taffeta frock with a light colored, tight fitting, basque-like bodice which has long sleeves and a slashed peplum. A navy blue taffeta skirt gathered very full on a straight band completes the gown. A quaint, little, slashed brimmed bonnet with velvet streamers is just the proper accompaniment for the costume.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

TASTY SAUCES
Chicken Sauce — Melt one-quarter cup butter, add one-quarter cup of flour and blend well. Add one cup chicken stock and stir constantly until smooth and creamy. Add one cup cream and heat over hot water, stirring frequently. Just before serving stir in two egg yolks diluted with two tablespoons cream.

Green Pepper Sauce — Remove seeds and tough portions from three green peppers. Chop peppers very fine and fry until soft in one-quarter cup butter. Add two tablespoons flour and blend well. Add two cups milk and stir constantly until smooth and thick. Add salt and pepper to taste.

Onion Sauce — Blend one and one-half tablespoons flour with one-half cup butter. Add gradually two cups scalded milk and stir constantly until smooth and thick. Add four boiled onions, finely chopped, salt and pepper to taste. Serve with veal, mutton or poultry.

SUGGESTIONS
To Wash Baby Diapers that have become hard, use soapflakes but add a teaspoonful of turpentine to two quarts of water. Do not rub on the board. Squeeze and pull into shape while under suds. Then rinse in the same temperature of what they were washed in, with another teaspoonful of turpentine and pinch of soapflakes added. Squeeze the water out, but don't wring or twist. Hang in warm place to dry. If you dry them in the house put a pan under to catch the water that drips from them. In the summer dry them in the shade—never in the sun. Pull once in a while while drying into shape.

Sink Cleanliness — To avoid unnecessary plumbers' bills, pour one cup of kerosene down the sink once a month and next morning pour down a couple of gallons of boiling water. The kerosene loosens and eats away any accumulated grease and the boiling water dissolves and washes it away, thus preventing stopping of the pipes.

To Remove the Smell of onions from breath, parsley eaten with vinegar is good.

To Remove Bluing Stains from fabrics, soak in strong ammonia water. Or soak in kerosene and wash with naphth soap in lukewarm water.

COOKING HINTS
When Making Fudge use one tablespoon of peanut butter instead of butter and chopped nuts. This gives a much richer flavor and is pleasant to the tongue.

In Making Mayonnaise Dressing to use for potato salad, if the white of the egg is beaten stiff and dry and then added to the dressing it will be found a great improvement and besides takes less mayonnaise to make the same amount of salad.

If Heavy Cream is whipped a little too long, it will granulate. To bring it back to the right consistency, add about two tablespoons of milk to a half pint of cream, then turn the beater a few times.

Wash Raisins in Hot Water before putting into cakes, and they will not settle to the bottom of the pan.

MUST HAVE MORE BABIES TO RETAIN BEAUTY, AMERICAN WOMEN TOLD

(By EDWIN HULLINGER)
PARIS—"American women must have more babies if they wish to retain their beauty," Dr. Bretman, one of the foremost beauty surgeons of Paris, told the United Press today.

Contrary to what seems to be the general impression in America, Bretman said, motherhood not only is an aid to beauty, but it is necessary, if a woman wishes to realize the acme of beauty. "Venus was not a virgin," he said. "She must have had at least one and perhaps two children. Otherwise, she could not have been as beautiful as she was."

Bretman declared that American women also make a great mistake in rearing their babies on bottles.

"The glands which function during maternity are connected with those in the neck which govern the complexion," he explained. "Restrict the functioning of one and you check the functioning of the entire system."

Bretman declared the effects of this practice of "evading the obligations of motherhood were already evident, in that it was becoming more uncommon in America to find beautiful women of middle age.

"America is a country of beautiful girls, not beautiful women," he said. "The American girl is beautiful. She has a wonderful complexion, the charm of health and good features. But, unfortunately, she is coming to lose the first, often the first two attributes, early in life."

Bretman warned against rouge or face paint cause "intoxication" of the color cells in the skin, eventually exhausting their supplies of coloring matter and leaving the skin lifeless in appearance.

ONE LITTLE THREAD OF LIFE

By PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

There was the sound of a feeble remonstrance from the startled servant, the wish of skirts across the hall, and his door opened and closed. A woman, wrapped from head to foot in a magnificent opera cloak and her hair ablaze with diamonds, was crossing the room toward him. Then Driscoll quaked, for he was afraid of himself. He was taken at a disadvantage. It was a brutal thing to do!

"Eric!"

She was close by his side and her arms mired out toward him. He rose to his feet and bowed gravely, keeping the chair between himself and her.

"Lady Beatrice," he said, "you might have spared me—and your self—this piece of quixotism. Allow me to take you back to your carriage at once."

She laughed softly.

"Much too late, my friend," she said, sitting down in Hobson's chair and taking a peach from a dish. "May I have a glass of wine, please?"

"I am awfully thirsty."

Driscoll gravely poured out some Chateau Yquem into one of the tall stemmed glasses and handed it to her with perfectly steady fingers.

"I presume," he said, "quietly, that you know what you are doing, and that you have some motive for this extraordinary conduct. Nevertheless, as your father has been my friend, I must tell you, Lady Beatrice, that your presence here is quite sufficient to ruin your very brilliant prospects, and to cause—scandal! Added to which, it is most inconvenient to myself."

"So sorry," she remarked, carelessly, taking a bite from her peach. "Ugh, how juicy. Give me a serviette, please!"

Driscoll passed her one in silence.

"So you've had a little party, have you?" she said, looking round. "How messy you men are. Cigar ash and wine stain everywhere. I wish I'd been a little earlier, though I had no dinner, and I hate traveling when I'm hungry."

"These reporters are so bothersome air," he explained. "Sir Eric slipped last night with Lady Beatrice

Calhoun the fiancée of the Duke of Dowchester. They were to have been married next month."

"Great heavens!" Hobson exclaimed sitting down on a hall chair.

"We're all very glad to hear about it," the man remarked confidently.

"You see, the master was engaged to Lady Beatrice, and it was broken off thru a misunderstanding.

And Sir Eric, tho' he seemed 'brave enough to his friends and everybody was about broken-hearted. Last night, when she should have been at the great ball at Dowchester House, she comes here as bold as brass and just carries him off with her! You should have seen his face when he handed her into the carriage. And, oh, Lord! you should have seen the duke?"

"Has he been here?" Hobson asked.

"About midnight," the man answered.

"He came in all his grand uniform from the ball, and, oh, how he swore! He wouldn't believe that they'd gone—he looked thru all the rooms himself, and when he went off—well, I never heard such language in my life. He was a fair scorcher, sir—begging your pardon."

"Have you heard from your master?" Hobson inquired.

"The man pointed to the wall, where a telegram was pinned.

"Drink the health of Lady Beatrice

Driscoll and myself. Wire Egerby.

Sending yachting clothes."

"DRISCOLL."

"Egerby is Sir Eric's country place, sir," the man explained.

Hobson rose and thrust, something which rustled into the man's hand.

"Please take this," he said, for telling me the best news I ever heard in my life!"

The man bowed and whisked for a taxi. Hobson drove to Victoria, where Kathleen was waiting for him.

"Come," he said, "we must go and have the best dinner we can get, and the best wine, for we have a toast to drink."

She gave a little sigh, but looked up at him smiling.

"It is—"

"Sir Eric and Lady Beatrice Dis-

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

By PHYLIS PHILLIPS

At sight of Arline Bates, Cherry hesitated to bring in his name to their conversation, unless the girl did so herself.

"Life used to be so much easier for our mothers and grandmothers, don't you think, Mrs. Randall?" asked

Arline, with a laugh.

"Yes, for the majority, but not for my own little mother," answered

Cherry quickly. "My mother was left alone to struggle with the world and raise several small children when she was a very young woman, and she managed to raise them beautifully, too," she finished, proudly. "But how I remember the hard times. The heartaches that were hers—the bitter disappointments and discourages—

don't you think you are right about the women of the past having less to bother them, that is, mentally, than those of the present day?"

"We modern women are so restless," went on Arline, so prone to analyze, "where our mothers just sewed and baked. We are always reaching out for the unattainable, and we let the gifts of the gods slip foolishly thru our fingers, our life happines, sometimes, without even recognizing it. We so often make our own tragedies. It's dreadful."

"Come one I once knew always used to laugh at me for—here she stopped as she remembering something some emotion too over-whelming for mere words, and looked away from Cherry's curious eyes, which seemed to be searching her face.

Cherry was wondering whether the

"some one" had been her Ned, and just how intimately these two had known each other in the past.

How to Keep Your Hair

Beautiful

Without Beautiful Well-kept Hair You can never be Really Attractive

STUDY—beautiful women and you will see just how much their hair has to do with their appearance.

Beautiful hair is not a matter of luck; it is simply a matter of fact.

You, too, can have beautiful hair

if you care for it properly.

Beautiful hair depends almost entirely upon the care you give it. Sham-pooring is always the most important thing.

It is the shampooing which brings out the real life and lustre, natural wave and color, and makes your hair soft, fresh and luxuriant.

When your hair is dry, dull and heavy, lifeless, stiff and gummy, and the strands cling together, and it feels harsh and disagreeable to the touch, it is because your hair has not been shampooed properly.

When your hair has been shampooed properly, and is thoroughly clean it will be glossy, smooth and bright, delightfully fresh-looking, soft and silky.

While your hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, it cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

That is why leading motion picture stars and discriminating women use

Mulsified Coconut Oil Shampoo.

This clear, pure and entirely grease-less product cannot possibly injure it and does not dry the scalp, or make their hair brittle, no matter how often you use it. If you want to see how really beautiful you can make your hair look,

just

Follow This Simple Method

FIRST, wet the hair and scalp in clear, warm water. Then apply a little Mulsified Coconut Oil Shampoo, rubbing it in thoroughly all over the scalp and throughout the entire length, down to the ends of the hair.

Rub the Lather Thoroughly

TWO or three teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather. This should be rubbed in thoroughly and briskly with the finger tips, so as to loosen the dandruff and small particles of dust and dirt that stick to the scalp.

When you have done this, rinse the hair and scalp thoroughly, using clear, fresh, warm water. Then use another application of Mulsified.

You can easily tell when the hair is perfectly clean, for it will be soft and silky in the water.

Rinse the Hair Thoroughly

THIS is very important. After the final washing the hair and scalp should be rinsed in at least two changes of good warm water and followed with a rinsing in cold water.

After a Mulsified shampoo, you will find the hair will dry quickly and evenly and have the appearance of being much thicker and heavier than it is.

If you want to always be remembered

KIWANIS DOWN ELKS

Sport Cores

Far be it from us
Our work to slink;
But, we'll turn the world
It's too darned hot to work.

Nice game
Here Tuesday
Kiwanis beat Elks.
Dupuis hurled next game.
He was given good support, too.
He's several ahead of last year's mark.

Babe Ruth seems out his 31st homer.
He has a good chance to get those 50 this season.

Giants purchase outfielder Bill Cunningham from Seattle club.
Happy Roberts, trotter, drops dead following 2:15 trot at Cosborton.

Taking the struggle, 5 to 2, the Tigers register their third victory over Browns.

Jack Dempsey leaves New York for Salt Lake City where he will visit his mother.

Yankees' eighth consecutive victory is chalked up when they defeat Athletics, 7 to 5.

Once more Red Sox drop double bill to Washington Senators. That's two in as many days.

JACK WALKS

NEW YORK—Jack Dempsey had to walk home Tuesday.

His $18,000 automobile in which he usually transports himself from place to place was seized and whisked away to parts unknown by officers representing Sheriff Knott of New York.

The seizure was made on an order issued by the Sheriff's Court ordering Knott to take possession of any property belonging to Jack Dempsey. The order was issued in connection with the litigation over a photoplay.

The first piece of Dempsey property the Sheriff's officers held was the big automobile. The chauffeur was told to get out and the car was driven off.

Phillies bunch four hits for as many runs in eighth inning and wallop Braves, 6 to 5.

Joe Haley is awarded Judge's decision over Freddie Thompson in 10 rounds at Oswego, N. Y.

"Indian Chief" Rogers is slated to exchange punches with K. O. Brown at Cincy Monday night.

Jess Willard says with four months training he can beat Dempsey. But that's what he said at Toledo.

Athletes representing the N. Y. Athletic club win all five relay races at A. A. U. meet in Pasadena.

Memphis Chicks set Southern association record when they pile up 29 runs on 30 hits against Little Rock.

Georges Carpentier and Francois Descamps are guests at a dinner tendered French and British societies by the Editor and Publisher.

When Dick Rudolph tried to send Powell home from second on a single, thus losing the tying run, Boeckle objected, and the two men near came to blows in the Philadelphia game.

The engineer of this column, after a heavy day's fishing, announced Tuesday that Wapak defeated St. Marys, 5 to 3. It's all wrong. St. Marys was winner by the 5 to 3 score. That's all right, glad to do it.

PHILADELPHIA — Assurance have been received from many of the leading tennis players of various countries that they would enter the National Lawn Tennis tournament for the singles championship, which will be held at the Germantown Cricket Club in September. Indications are that William T. Tilden, the title holder, will meet as strong, if not stronger competition in defending his title than he did at the tournament in Wimbledon, England, where he retained his title of the world's champion.

Both Teams Enter Fray With Crippled Machines

Grabbing off an early lead, and maintaining it thruout the struggle, the Kiwanis broke their losing streak by downing the Elks in an 11 to 6 contest at Murphy-st park Tuesday afternoon. The result of the game made no material standing in the Business Club league. The Kiwanis aggregation continued to have a firm grip on the cellar position, while the Elks are clamoring hard for admittance.

Both teams Tuesday played with crippled lineups. Captain Schroeder, of the Elks, shifted his lineup repeatedly in an effort to make it more effective. The Kiwanis, under the leadership of Leo Faurot was the only performer playing his usual position. Rip Pierce, who usually looks after the keystone bag, was sent behind the bat in the absence of Allaire and Phillips. Let it be said, right here, Rip did splendidly on the receiving end. He caught as good a game as has been seen in the loop, and repeatedly he used the old trick cap. Manager Jolley could do worse than have this lad work with Allaire on the reeling station. Joe Goodrich, tender of the dizzy corner, played second, while Dietrich, hurler, watched Joe's regular position. Holly Thomas, who has been the outfield, was shifted in to the short field and played a remarkable game. He covers a wonderful lot of ground, and fields his position well. Thomas handled six chances without a bobbie, and went to the bleachers after a pop foul.

A youngster in the person of John Goodrich, son of Joe, broke into the game Tuesday, playing in the sun field during the latter part of the engagement. He looks promising.

DUPUIS SHOWS FORM

Dupuis was the hurling selection of Manager Jolley, and vindicated the judgment of that celebrity. It was by far the best game he has worked.

Dupuis, who has earned the title of a hard luck hurler, was in rare form Tuesday, and with the exception of two innings had the Elks taking away from his hand. He was given good support, and this coupled to the big lead piled up for him in the early session resulted in his victory.

In the absence of Jack Mallor, Captain Schroeder sent Van Horns to shortstop. Van stayed just long enough to execute a fast double play, and then he was sent to center field to relieve Scholl, who misjudged a fly. Paul Mallor was sent to short. Van missed a Texas league in center. Schroeder benched him, shifted Mike Sweeney to center and sent Bryan to the sun garden. And that's the way the thing stood. Catcher Durbin was on the bench Tuesday. Devere taking care of the backstopping position.

COON'S SUPPORT POOR

Coon apparently was not in the best of form Tuesday, for the Kiwanis hit him almost at will. He was a trifle wild at times, too. While he only issued one base on ball, he has two wild heaves charged against him. But, considering the poor support afforded him, Coon hurled a game that can't fairly be censured.

He allowed the Kiwanis 10 hits, but gave them only one run. Devere, Scholl and Sweeney were the sluggers of the day insofar as consistent hitting is concerned. Each got three safeties in three trips to the plate.

One of Devere's swats went for an added base, and another went for a triple. Thomas, Reynolds and Schroeder also connected for three-plys.

Rip Pierce has also apparently regained his batting optic. He has suffered slump for some weeks past, but came thru Tuesday with a brace of singles in four times to bat.

Rotary, leading the league, will battle the Lions for supremacy Thursday afternoon. The Rotarians have only to win one game, and the worst they can do after that is to lose for first position. If the Lions are able to capture all their remaining games, they will have an even chance for stellar position.

Tuesday's score:

Elks 6, Kiwanis 11

FASIG STAKE CAPTURED BY TOM MURPHY

CLEVELAND, O.—The three-year-old trotters were the center of attraction at the Grand Circuit races at the North Randall track Tuesday and the premier reinsman, Tom Murphy, put across his first winner of the week, beating the youngsters in the feature event, the $2,000 Fasig Stake, in two fast heats with the bay filly Eunice Belle. "Pop" Geers also made his first win of the week, the veteran putting Lillian Silkwood across in the 2:10 pace, while Walter Cox kept his lead on the pair by winning his second race, beating a big field in the second division of the 2:12 trot with the high-priced Boston trotter Greywold.

Cox incurred the wrath of the Judges and drew a $500 fine for going easy in the second heat. The colt race was something of a speculative event, Eunice Belle being the favorite in the auctions at $400, Miss Rhineland bringing $175, Marge the Great $140, Patsy Chandler $85, Peter Pershing $80 and the field $85. In each heat, Murphy took the favorite to the front and won all the way. Marge the Great being the only contender.

SEASON'S FASTEST PACE

The winner took a record of 2:08 3/4 in the first heat, the fastest heat by one of the age this season. Lillian Silkwood had things all her own way in the 2:10 pace, and the Little Western, half-mile track, trotter, Shawnee bumped the first division of the 2:12 trotters in sensational style and fast time. Greywold was the choice for the second division, but lost the first two heats to Carmelita and Linaara Watts, after which Cox got him to the front and he won all the way, looking the part of a high class stake trotter.

In the first heat, after getting away badly, he trotted the last half in 1:00. It was announced that the Ohio State was to be raced tomorrow but so many starters that it would be raced in two divisions with the original amount of the stake, $5,000 given to each division.

It's Slaughter

CLEVELAND — In a contest that was almost pathetic the Cleveland Indians romped over the final game of the series, thus making it three straight. The score was 16 to 4, and might have been more had the champions cared to exert their selves.

Boss Gleason sent Mulrenan to the slab, but removed him after three rounds of futile endeavor. Davenport took his place and finished the game hopelessly and helplessly. Gleason sat on the edge of the dugout and gazed upon things as if in a reminiscent mood. Perhaps he was thinking of other days, when Cleveland's Indians did no such romping about when the Cox were here.

The score:

Chicago 11, Cleveland 4

Batteries: Mulrenan, Davenport and Yarnan; Sothorn and Nunamaker, Shinault, slant dh'ayt b-yb.

Number 13 Popular In Majors Tuesday

Thirteen hits for a team total occurred seven times in major league games yesterday. All of the St. Louis National League players aided in hitting out 13 hits to defeat the Pittsburgh leaders. The Washington Americans performed the stunt twice in winning over Boston, which had that number of hits in one of the contests. The Cleveland World's champions and the Chicago White Sox each hit the ball safely 13 times as many runs as the Sox. The Philadelphia Athletics made 13 hits but lost to New York despite the visitors' four run lead, obtained in the first inning.

The remarkable total of twenty-one assists, for eight innings, was made by the Cincinnati Nationals. The second baseman, Bohne and Shortstop Crane accepted 20 out of 21 chances.

Pitcher Myers of the Boston Americans earned his salary in the second Boston-Washington contest. The Red Sox twirler made half of his team's hits and had eight assists in the field.

'Stuf Luck, Fred

PHILADELPHIA — The stickpin presented Fred Mitchell by the Chicago National League baseball club, which he piloted to victory in the 1918 pennant race, was stolen yesterday from the club house of the Philadelphia Nationals, together with about fifty dollars in cash. Mitchell, now manager of the Boston Braves, said he did not mind the loss of the money, but that he would not have parted with the pin for several times its value.

DALY IS GETTING CHANCE AT LAST

TOM DALY

Tom Daly, the only baseball player who ever hit a home run with a king looking on, has been a pinch player with the Chicago Cubs for four years. Things have broken for him so that he never could land a regular job, but he has been a valuable man to call on in an emergency. He has won fame as a substitute batter and he has done good work as first baseman and catcher for brief and separated spells. This year Daly, due to the injury of Al Killefer, has been behind the bat in a number of games, sharing the work with O'Farrell, and he has demonstrated that four years on bench have not dulled him, for he has caught good ball at all times. In fact, making due allowances for the worth of Killefer and O'Farrell, he has looked just as good as the run of catchers and has contrived his full part to such success as the Cubs have had.

Johnson Booked To Meet Harry Wills

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas — Jack Johnson, former heavyweight pugilistic champion, will meet Harry Wills for the negro championship at Jersey City, N. J., August 22. It was learned here today. The contest previously was announced for August 20 at New York.

Johnson, completing a sentence of one year in the federal penitentiary here on a white slave law conviction, has been offered thirty thousand dollars or the option of a percentage of the gross receipts for the contest. The former champion's sentence expires July 9.

18 Horses To Face Ohio Stake Barrier

CLEVELAND, O. — With eighteen named to start in the Ohio stake for 2:08 trotters, today's feature of the Grand Circuit meeting at North Randall, the race was divided into two sections, each of which will carry a purse of five thousand dollars, the original value of the event.

This is the first time since the stake was inaugurated in 1909 that it has been so handled, and it is believed to set a precedent for other five thousand dollar stakes.

Nine are named to face the starter in each division. Among those entered in the first section are Natalie the Great, Dottie Day and Mollie Knight, Emma Harvester, Brusloff, E. Colorado and Walnut Frisco are among those listed in the other half.

Another event on the card which attracted attention is the 2:08 trotting sweepstakes, in which seven were named. They include Peter Coley, Arlon McKinney, Periscope and Charley Rex.

A 2:18 trot, with nine probable starters and a 2:12 pace, in which thirteen were named, complete the program.

Poor Ole Reds

CHICAGO — Virgil Cheeves pitched a masterly game in the 1st inning, supporting by his pals, enabling the Cubs to emerge triumphant 3 to 2, over the Reds of Cincy in the getaway scrap.

The Morans lumped three of their nine swats in the fourth inning, beginning with a home run drive over the right field wall, by Ed Kosh. That rally tied a knot in the score, again in the fifth, and Cheeves never wavered after that.

Timely stick work by Deal and Flack were factors in the victory, the latter's third successive single being good for the winning tally, while Deal's three cushion shot counted twin runs with the aid of a wild peg in the second.

The score:

Cincinnati 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 — 2-9
Chicago 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 x — 3-7
Batteries: Rixey and Hargrave; Wingo; Cheeves and Killefer.

Hubbr To Toledo

TOLEDO, O. — Acquisition of Third Baseman Huber from the Greenville club of the South Atlantic League, was announced today by Roger Bresnahan, president of the Toledo club of the American Association. The player is to report immediately, Bresnahan said. Huber will relieve the veteran, Paddy Bauman, it is said.

ABOUT READY FOR DATE

Carpentier-Gibbons Match Practically Agreed Upon

NEW YORK—(Special)—Mons. Descamps called on Tex Rickard Tuesday for a conference on the proposed match which the big promoter is trying to arrange between Georges Carpentier and Tom Gibbons, the St. Paul boxer. Tex would like to give Georges and Thomas a little combat on Labor day at his arena in Jersey City, where the French champion had such an exciting experience with Jack Dempsey the other day. Descamps is willing, and so is his fighting charge, but both would like a little extension of time.

During the confab, Descamps advised Tex that he did not think Georges could be quite right for at least three months, but that then he would be prepared to try conclusions with Gibbons or any other man Rickard might have in mind. At any rate the match is practically made, except for naming the date.

MAY BE MATCHED FOR OUT.

Rickard said today that if Descamps does not change his mind about the Labor day date being a bit early, he would try and bring the two boxers together sometime in October. The genial Tex announced that it would be for the light heavyweight championship of the world, and thought that with the two men men very evenly matched it would prove an interesting struggle.

Tex was most enthusiastic about the recent championship battle and paid Carpentier quite a tribute for his wonderful showing against the American champion.

"Carpentier never winced when things were breaking bad for him," Tex said. "I guess he gave the crowd a genuine surprise by stepping out there right at the bell and stabbing the champion in the mouth with his sharp shooting left. That first punch showed me he didn't fear the great Dempsey. And in the second round when he whipped that right hand to Jack's jaw just as things looked blackest for him—wasn't that a wonderful display of grit?"

WON'T PROMOTE WILLS MATCH.

Rickard was asked about his refusal to stage a Dempsey-Wills contest at Jersey City on Oct. 12.

"Dempsey and Wills may box on Oct. 12," replied the famous promoter, "but they will not box for me then, or any other time."

"If I gave no thought for tomorrow I could put on a Dempsey-Wills match and make just as much money as I did out of last Saturday's great contest. But I'm in boxing as a permanent business. I've half a million tied up in boxing. I'm not going to take any changes on running the business."

"Propositions were made to me to stage a Johnson-Wills contest for the colored heavyweight championship, a Dempsey-Wills match and a Dempsey-Willard match. For the game's sake I have refused to consider any of them."

BIGMAN JACK'S ONLY RIVAL.

"I'm not going to have anything to do with anything except a live sporting venture. A Dempsey-Willard match would be a massacre."

"Well, whom do you consider a suitable opponent for Dempsey?" was asked.

"Bill Brennan looks to be the only heavyweight contender I would take a chance on," Tex replied. "Dempsey would break Bob Martin in two. Frank Moran certainly is no match for the champion. Tom Gibbons is a light heavyweight. I may match Dempsey and Brennan for Oct. 12."

"What will you guarantee Carpentier and Gibbons if you put them on?"

WILL MAKE NO GUARANTEES.

"I'll not guarantee them a penny!"

Babe Ruth Cheated Out Of 32nd Homer

NEW YORK — Babe Ruth would have been credited with two home runs instead of one in the box scores published today had not an enthusiastic fan tried to catch the ball yesterday. Ruth's high-drive mingled with the clouds and was descending just on the edge of the right field stands when the fan jumped up and diverted the ball into the field instead of clapping it in his hands. Ruth was on third base when Umpire Connolly sent him back to second under the ground rules.

Ruth has thirty-one homers to his credit with New York yet to play three games before reaching the half way mark of the season. At this rate the Yankee slugger would hit at least 64 home runs, 10 more than last year.

Rickard snapped, "I'm through with guarantees. Boxers will have to gamble on things as well as myself here after. I'm tired of carrying all the worry and vexations on my shoulders. Hereafter I'll stage all my matches on a percentage basis. This goes for every one from Dempsey down to Jimmy Wilde."

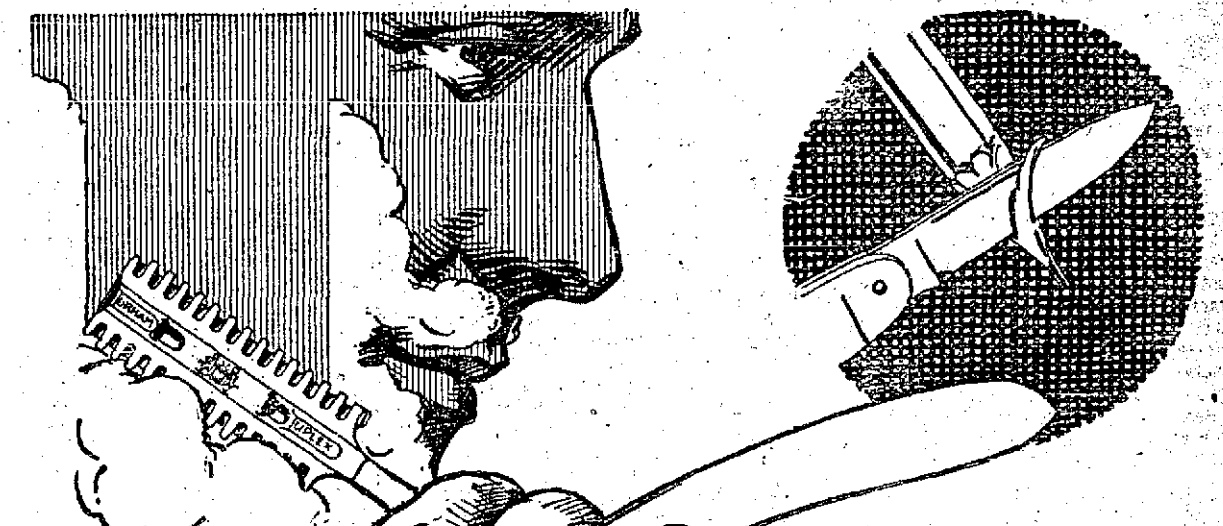

"Guarantees are against all reason and business ethics. Promoters have been held up by boxers long enough."

Having Hard Time Getting This Jury

CHICAGO — The task of selecting a jury to try the eighteen White Sox players and alleged gamblers indicted in connection with the 1918 baseball scandal was continued today, although there was little prospect of securing a jury immediately.

Three prospective jurors were tentatively accepted yesterday by the state which is subjecting all potential jurors to a lengthy questioning regarding their knowledge of, and connection with baseball.

Jurors are being asked by the state whether they have ever played baseball, amateur, semi-professional or professional and whether they are baseball fans.

"KEEP FIGHTING IN CLINCHES"

Forbes Advises Business Men To Follow Dempsey's Example

BUSINESS AWAITS WORKERS

N. C. R. Makes New Sales Records During Depression

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special) — I learned something from watching Jack Dempsey fight. I had not seen a fight before and have no anxiety to see one again. Exactly what I got out of the exhibition, however, is needed today by the majority of men in the business world, both employers and workers.

Before the world championship battle, other fights were staged. I noticed that in most cases, the second-rate fighters got into close grips, when they were in a "clinch" and had little or no room to do defective work, they didn't try to fight at all, but simply waited until they got out free.

Dempsey, on the other hand, won his fight during his clinches. Although he had to keep himself thoroughly guarded when in these tight places and had only, according to the reports, about six inches of play for his arms, he kept battling his opponent every instant, now in the heart, now in the stomach, now in the back of the neck, now on the face. It was palpable to even a novice like myself that this brawling method, when in close grips, was certain to wear out Carpenter. The Frenchman appeared to be more scientific, more agile, and much freer, when there was plenty of freedom for action. But he got into grips he didn't keep pounding like Dempsey.

Now, as I sit watching this exhibition I couldn't but feel that most of us are today in a tight place. Most of us are in very close grips with our duties. Business appears to be in the "clinch" stage. Because of conditions, there doesn't seem to be much opportunity for effective action. Nearly everybody is waiting for the deadlock, or "clinch" to end.

Why not try to adopt Dempsey's winning tactics?

Why not utilize every ounce of our strength to accomplish something even though we find ourselves in an extremely tight place and sorely handicapped?

Why not keep battling it out with as much determination as the world's champion fighter exercised when he found himself in a tight place?

Of course, there are obstacles. Of course, it is next to impossible to accomplish big results during this deadlock. Capital and credit are scarce. Interest rates are enormous. Production costs are high. Buyers are indifferent or worse. Competition is keen. Most markets apparently are oversupplied. Pessimism has taken possession of nearly everybody. The prevailing tendency is to wait for the deadlock to end.

Yet it has been demonstrated by a recent number of corporations and firms and individuals that big results can be achieved in face of all these difficulties. Instances of this kind have already been cited, and now I have just received another impressive illustration of what can be done when a proper amount of initiative, a push and force and steam is applied.

The National Cash Register company has sold more cash registers during the last six months than in any other half year of its history.

Most concerns selling a product of this kind would have simply concluded that things were so bad that there was no use trying to force the pace in inducing merchants and others to spend money. What did this triumphant organization do? It redoubled its efforts all along the line. Last month, for example, it set up a certain selling goal and although this goal seemed impossible of attainment, it launched measures calculated to reach it.

Fourteen executives set off on a tour of all important centers in the eastern half of the United States and into Canada. They held replete new zeal into the field, emboldened what salesmen in other lines were accomplishing, presented optimistic facts about what the company had been able to achieve in the first five months of the year, pumped in to them fresh and forceful selling arguments and otherwise fired them with pep.

After each day's strenuous work of this kind, the 14 executives utilized their nights to travel to other cities.

Of course, all previous June records were smashed.

And the company is confident that 1921 will prove a banner year to its long history.

The head of a large concern manufacturing food products told me yesterday that by lowering prices, by intensifying the selling campaign and by advertising aggressively, they had been able to come thru all this period of general gloom with flying colors. Both volume of business and profits compare very favorably with any pre-war year.

Several automobile companies have secured equally satisfactory results by adopting similar methods. In the textile industry like records have been achieved in quite a few instances. A concern selling office appliances told me yesterday that while other companies in this line were falling behind, its business was larger than ever—solely because of the dynamic efforts exerted and the faith that it could be done. Certain insurance companies, I understand, are eclipsing all their former records.

Yes, most of us are fighting in a "clinch" at present. We are apt to feel hand-tied and foot-tied and purse-tied. But what is here said demonstrates that "It can be done."

TWO PRIESTS ARE POISONED

Hamler and Bryan Pastors Taken Ill at Delphos

CAUSED BY TAINTED HAM

Condition Reported Serious—General News Notes

DELPHOS — (Special) — Rev. Father H. S. Gabel, of Hamler, may not recover and Rev. Father Alfred Metzger, of Bryan, is in a critical condition as result of an attack of ptomaine poisoning brought on by eating ham in the village of Landeck near here Tuesday.

They were visiting at the home of Frank Wulfford of this city, when both became sick, the illness coming suddenly. Doctors pronounced it a case of ptomaine poisoning.

Rev. Fathers Frederick Rupert and Urban Burkhardt of this city visited the afflicted priests and administered to them the last sacraments.

Louis DuBoise, son of the Pennsylvania lumber king and resident of the town of DuBoise, Penn., which was named after his father, while traveling cross-country with a friend became the victim of a nervous break-down near this city. The young man's mind is affected. He was taken to his home by his parents.

An exceptionally sad death was that of Mrs. Arthur Berry of this city, which occurred Tuesday. A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Berry, both mother and child dying the same day.

She is survived by her husband, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Sintz of this city, one sister, Mrs. Luther Evans and a brother, Henry Sintz, Ft. Wayne.

H. M. Peltier of this city sustained a painful injury Tuesday when a horse stepped on his foot. An X-ray revealed a fractured or displaced bone. He was taken to a Lima hospital for treatment.

When Julius, small son of B. Weisberg, of Chicago, visiting here, lay away from his parents in the business section, the child was not located until the fire bell was rung and a general search instituted. A little son of M. C. Ay also became lost and a searching party was assembled by the tolling of the fire bell. Both tots were soon returned to their parents.

A heavy downpour of rain, accompanied by severe wind, did considerable damage here Monday afternoon. Limbs were torn from trees, growing corn was laid flat on the ground and trees were uprooted near the Auglaize river, three miles west of here. Tents used in connection with a street carnival were blown over and general havoc was created.

MAN NABBED HERE AS DELPHI RUBBER SUSPECT

Pending the arrival of authorities from Delphi, Indiana, police here are holding Beryl Smith, S. Main-st in city prison.

Smith, according to police, is suspected of burglarizing the clothing store of Anderson & Landis in the Indiana town. He was arrested Tuesday night by Detectives Watkins and Kipker.

Police say, Smith's arrest was the result of a confession by Harry Healy, who is also implicated in the robbery.

CONSCIENCE FUND GIVEN BOOST

Judge Layton Gets $15 Contribution at Wapakoneta

WAPAKONETA — (Special) — Judge F. C. Layton received a $15 contribution to the "conscience fund." The conscience-stricken person said in his letter to the judge that he might do with it as he pleased. Judge Layton decided to give the money to the law library so the Auglaize-co collection of law books will be increased by $15 worth of new material.

The board of county commissioners has been appealed to in an effort to stop reckless speeding on the concrete road between here and St. Marys. They will establish a speed limit.

In an effort to do away with the fly evil this city will be provided with tubular fly traps in the business district. Committees were appointed to stir up enthusiasm. The insects are more numerous than usual this year.

Married: Raymond Knipple, 25, and Louise Layton, 26, both of New Bremen.

MANY ACCIDENTS AT CELINA

Rev. Roebuck Applies For Job on New Court ouse

CELINA — (Special) — Harold Buchenauer, 25, world war veteran, suffered concussion of the brain in an automobile collision here Monday and may not recover, surgeons say. His left lung was crushed, his left ear was nearly torn off and he received 50 bad cuts about his body. The Ford car he was driving was demolished.

Ed. Brune, a meat cutter at a local restaurant, had his hand terribly cut by a large knife, while cutting meat.

While cranking a Ford car, Ralph Mullen was struck by the crank and received a severe cut affecting his nose and one of his eyes. It is feared the sight of the eye is destroyed.

While swimming in the reservoir, William Nottingham injured his foot on a piece of sunken timber. Splinters penetrated the foot, which is infected and swollen to twice its normal size.

So that he could say, in future years, that he helped to build the new court house here, Rev. A. H. Roebuck, local church pastor, applied to Contractor Ora Green, of Lima, for a job. When asked concerning wages expected, Rev. Roebuck replied that it didn't matter much what he was paid.

MONSTER GUN IS DEMONSTRATED

Miniature Model of Huge Machine Proves Effective

SHOOTS MILE A SECOND

Will Hurl Five Ton Projectile Over 200 Miles

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press) — Scientists and inventors today discussed the remarkable qualities of a new gun, which Dr. Miller Reese Hutchinson, former chief engineer for Thomas A. Edison, claims may be developed to hurl a projectile of five tons from two hundred to three hundred miles. Its velocity, he declared, ranges from one to five miles a second. The noise it made at a demonstration yesterday sounded much like the click of a cash register, the only a miniature weapon, with an eight inch barrel was used. Its projectile may be stopped in a sheet of steel with the precision of a trolley car. The gun is the invention of John Temple, an Englishman, who developed the idea in this country.

PIECES OF STEEL
The demonstration, held in the presence of scientists and newspapermen, was, curiously enough, held in Dr. Hutchinson's office on the fifty-first floor of the Woolworth building. The testing grounds consisted of a box of sand on the floor of the office, over which was placed a sheet of steel three quarters of an inch thick.

Pointing the gun downward toward the fifty offices filled with people beneath him, Dr. Hutchinson discharged the weapon and the cash register click was heard. In the sheet of steel there was lodged a projectile three inches long and one-half inch in diameter. The ends stuck out on either side of the steel.

Dr. Hutchinson explained that the tail end of the projectile was threaded and served the purpose of a bolt. This feature, he declared, could be used in bolting a plate over a hole in the hull of a leaking ship at sea.

MILE A SECOND
The demonstration gun used by Dr. Hutchinson had a velocity of one mile a second. The elimination of a loud report, he said, was obtained by confinement of the expanding gases to the chamber from which the projectile emanated. The weapon resembled the nozzle of a pneumatic hammer.

"EVIDENCE" IN LIQUOR CASES GOES TO THIEVES

ST. MARYS — (Special) — Liquors confiscated last week in a raid made on several residences and places of business and stored in the office of W. H. Swift, Justice of the Peace, as evidence against the accused, was stolen early Tuesday morning when the door of the office of the justice of the peace was forced. The liquor was in the custody of Constable Needles.

The theft was pulled off quietly and the large quantity of stuff was removed via a main street route, despite the fact that night patrolmen were on duty.

WILL RESUME HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

COLUMBUS — L. O. Herrick, director of the department of public works, with reorganization of his office virtually completed, today prepared to resume the extensive highway construction program inaugurated with his appointment.

Herrick had the backing of Governor Davis in his plan to spread the network of improved roads throughout Ohio. Davis, in the first session of the initial cabinet declared his hope the highway department would continue its road construction projects.

The next contract letting will be July 23, Herrick announced when bids on $5,000,000 worth of construction will be let. He said his policy of having a letting each month would be resumed.

No new highway work has been awarded for two months. Herrick said the delay was occasioned by belief freight rates would be reduced in June or July and he had hoped to give the department the advantage of the saving. He explained today that hope for lowered costs apparently had been vain and the department could not afford to delay.

MUCH LIQUOR TO BE DESTROYED

Mourners Will Gather When Judge Jackson Gets Busy

There is expected to be "weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth" in Lima in the immediate future.

All because there will be "beaucoup" liquor spilled into the sewer by Judge Jackson, of criminal court, who, in the last few months, has gathered a stock of the convivial fluid, which would put a bonded warehouse to shame.

Some of the whiskey was made to drink. Other liquid was made to sell, but it'll all go the same route, avers the judge.

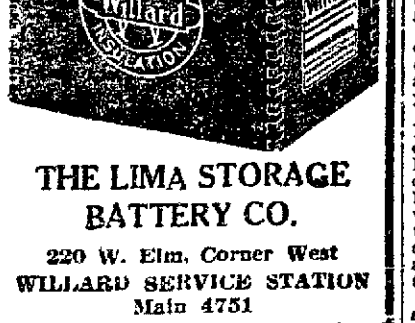

The biggest batch of what appears to be the best, is 72 bottles of one of that "Golden Wedding" bottled in bond, which police say was taken from the home of David Wisner, Allen-co farmer.

"Maybe, I'll violate the law by giving some of it away," the judge told several hangers-on around police court.

Immediately business picked up and ecstasy was written on the faces of those present. But the smiles faded when Judge Jackson added:

"Yes, I think I'll let the hospitals here have several bottles."

Anyway, there is scheduled to be a large number of mourners present when the "licker" is poured out.

KELLEY HAD VERY CLOSE CALL

He Thought His Time Had Come. States Covington Citizen

"I honestly believe Taulac saved me from a bad spell of sickness, and besides that, it built me up to 11 pounds in weight," said C. M. Kelley, 420 Highland St., Covington, Va., well known electric crane operator for the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company.

"Nearly a year ago I began to feel sluggish, my sleep became broken, and my appetite failed me. Many mornings I only took a cup of coffee, and what I ate at other meals was far below what I had been used to eating. I became constipated, had dull backaches and a heavy, tired feeling all the time and dizzy spells that made me unsteady on my feet. I also had several attacks of acute indigestion, and one night I thought my time had surely come. I got to where I couldn't get through with my work as easily as I always had, and was getting worse right on. I couldn't have stayed out of bed much longer.

"Well, I felt pretty near 'down and out' but my wife was taking Taulac, so I decided to see if it would help me like it was her. I began to take a few doses out of her bottle and these did me so much good I got a bottle for myself. This one bottle turned the trick, and my appetite is fine now, and I've been feeling perfectly well in every way ever since I finished it. I am chock full of life and energy, my work is interesting, instead of a task, and I never have any pains or aches any more. Taulac is certainly the favorite medicine at our house, for it restored my wife and myself both to perfect health, and we wouldn't think of being without it."

"Taulac is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store. —Adv

ICE PRICE INCREASED
CINCINNATI — Ice was advanced five cents a hundred today to dealers, but the price to consumers, 66 1-2 cents a hundred, remains unchanged. The advance followed the tremendous demand during the hot spell, necessitating the shipment of natural ice from Michigan and artificial ice from Chattanooga.

SHORT SHAVINGS

The butcher grumbled angrily at himself as he put the ten-cent meat order up. "Cheap skate," he muttered. "If she ever cut loose of a dollar—"

Just then a small boy burst excitedly in the door.

"Hey," he shouted, "are you putting up mamma's order of cat meat?"

"Yeah," replied the butcher, "and all I gotta say is—"

"Unwrap it right away," announced the boy. "Kitty's caught a mouse."

In a western town they tell a story of a woman newly come into money, who on one occasion while visiting the house of a friend gazed long and thoughtfully at a plaster cast of Shakespeare.

"Poor man! How pale he looked. He couldn't have been well when that was taken."

"He wasn't," agreed her polite hostess. "He was dead."

"Oh," continued the woman, drawing a sympathetic breath, "that accounts for it."

At a provincial cinema the following notice was shown on the screen during the performance:

"Lost between — Rd. and this theater a purse containing $10. Finder rewarded."

Almost immediately a simple-minded man presented himself at the booking office.

"It's found," he said.

The manager was brought.

"Have you got it?" he asked.

"Oh, no," came the reply, "but I've only just come along that way and it wasn't there then."

THE big motor tank and its running mate, the tank wagon, have a particular meaning to the people of Ohio. For years they have been delivering products that give light and comfort and power. They have come to stand for good products and good service.

Close to a thousand motor tanks and tank wagons are used to make Standard Oil products easily available to the people of Ohio. Everywhere they are symbols of speed, economy and dependability.

Yet the tank wagon and motor tank are but the contact units of a far-reaching organization. Back of them is a highly developed service which begins at the well, follows the crude through pipe lines to refinery, and delivers the finished products from distributing station to you.

One of the principal products delivered by the tank wagon and motor tank is Red Crown Gasoline. The high quality of Red Crown is guaranteed by a 20-year study of automotive needs and the perfected refining processes gained during the last 50 years. Its complete chain of boiling points gives full power at every engine speed—and that means quicker, smoother miles.

Play All Makes of Records Perfectly

Conceived in Paris decades ago and delicately perfected as time went on, Pathe music has long enjoyed the approval of our musically fastidious allies.

Ears that would be distraught by the blare of "talking machines" have welcomed the jeweled music of Pathe Phonographs.

Pathe—the one phonograph that has every good point that you always reckoned a real phonograph ought to have, and supreme in every point.

Supreme in design, in material and in workmanship, the finest phonograph produced today.

Supreme in tone—and that is the one biggest thing that really counts with any phonograph.

The Pathe system of sound reproduction is scientifically correct. Construction of reproducer and tone arm and tone chamber, all mathematically right. In addition to all the good features of ordinary phonographs the Pathe Phonograph has many exclusive features, including the pure tone chamber and the famous Pathe Sapphire Ball.

Don't be content with half a phonograph—get the complete phonograph—the one that plays all makes of records—and plays them perfectly!

Buy the best—a Pathe Phonograph.
